PREFACE.

THERE are not many instances of the existence of original monastic muniments preserved together in their entirety from the foundation of the house to which they relate up to the time of its extinction. But such an instance occurs in the case of the Priory of Selborne. And the preservation of its records is due to the one cause which in every such instance has alone been the means of preserving them from dispersion and destruction, namely, the transfer of the monastic property, en bloc, to some collegiate foundation, which then laid up safely in its muniment room the documents which came with that property. But even in these instances the term "muniments" has to be taken in its strictly limited sense of "title-deeds." It was as title-deeds to property, not as historical documents of value in themselves, that the charters were preserved; and consequently such rich sources of information for later ages as sacrist-rolls, rent-rolls, farm-accounts, obit-rolls, and the like, and even, sometimes, for all that appears to the contrary, the contents of libraries,[1] were disregarded.

In the Founder's Tower at Magdalen College, Oxford, the whole series of deeds relating to the foundation, enrichment, and dissolution of the Augustinian Priory at Selborne is preserved. They were calendared for the College by the Editor of this volume many years ago, together with the rest of the vast collection of charters preserved in the same place. And here, by the ready permission of the College, the members of the Hants Record Society are presented with that portion of the calendar which describes the deeds directly relating to the Priory itself, the place in which it was situated, and the immediate neighbourhood; a portion which for the purpose of this publication has been carefully compared with the original documents. The number of documents here described, or (as in the case of those of special importance) printed at full length, is 388; others, chiefly relating to property at Alton and Bramdean, number about 125, at Petersfield 167, and for Basing and Basingstoke 72. The calendar of many in the latter portion is printed at pp. 651—659 of the exhaustive History of Basingstoke, by F. J. Baigent and J. E. Millard, D.D., published in 1889.

Besides these, there are upwards of 1200 deeds in the same muniment-room relating to Enham, King's Somborne, Otterbourne, and other places in Hampshire (see Eighth Report of the Historical MSS. Commission, pp. 263–4); and of what value the calendars of these must be for the history of the county and of families connected with it, the readers of the present volume will be able to judge.

It is hardly necessary to dwell in this place upon the history of a Priory which has been narrated, largely from the documents here described and with general accuracy, in so universally known a book as Gilbert White's Natural History of Selborne. But those who examine its history will not wonder that its existence was comprised within the narrow limits of two centuries and a half. There seemed to be no actual reason for its existence in the district where it was placed. It was founded in an age when such founding was a fashion, and when already the number of like houses was becoming excessive; and founded where it was not needed, like the early homes of piety and progress, for the spread of religion, or for the relief of the sick and needy,[1] or for the promotion of agriculture and reclamation of waste lands, or for the advancement amidst a growing population of arts and learning. And its founder, although an able statesman and ruler, over whose death the historian Matthew Paris mourned as an irreparable loss to the nation, was not a man of God to inspire holy work and workers. His gifts to "religion" in the technical sense of the time were great, but were not necessarily therefore in a later sense "religious." By grant of a manor from King John he founded the Abbey of Hales Owen in Shropshire; by a similar grant from Henry III the Abbey of Titchfield in Hampshire; a Dominican Friary at Winchester, and, best of all, a Hospital at Portsmouth, while he largely aided the Church of St. Thomas the Martyr at Acre; and so he seems to have given ungrudgingly of his wealth for objects which promised to perpetuate his name and keep it in remembrance to his personal honour. But Selborne evidently had no sufficient raison d'être; no special good work to do to keep it alive. And so we need not wonder at its early corruption and its sure decay. The injunctions given by William of Wykeham after a personal visitation, in the course of which he declares he found not merely disregard of rules and of the vow of profession but also of due and decent behaviour, show how great the laxity had become; the Prior and Canons, without being guilty of any gross and crying scandal (although there is even some small intimation of this), had become a society of worldly gentlemen living carelessly and very much at their ease. And upon careless spendthrift living followed indebtedness, dilapidation of buildings, and inability to maintain the statutable number of members; evils which Bishop Waynflete subsequently endeavoured in vain to remedy by the appointment and removal of several Priors in rapid succession. In 1478 we find that a visitation under the authority of the General Chapter of the Augustinian Order was held at Selborne, which very probably may have been in consequence of representations from the Bishop; and it is to be wished that the report of the official examination then made were forthcoming. In that year, however, Peter Bernes, who was then Prior for a second time, resigned his office, very possibly as a result of the enquiry. At last, when in 1484 there was no one left but the Prior, an old man of seventy-two, Wayneflete took the final step of procuring the suppression of the useless house, and of transferring its endowments to a better object. But all was done with a care which justified to the world the course that was taken; a duplicated process of enquiry showed by sworn witnesses the actual state of things; the Prior, the next succeeding Bishop of Winchester and the Prior and Convent of St. Swithun gave their several consents; and the transfer was confirmed by the Pope. And for five years afterwards, at least, the Prior lived to receive from the College an annual pension of £6. 13*s.* 4*d.*, two-thirds of the income which his predecessor had received; while the founder of the Priory was, by Wayneflete's order, commemorated at one of the quarterly obits observed at Magdalen College.

[1] It is noteworthy that the only instance of a distinctly charitable benefaction (although the house was said to be partly founded for "pauperum susceptionem,") occurs in the year 1235, at the very outset of the Priory's life, in the gift of land charged with an annual dole of six pairs of shoes to poor parishioners of Selborne; while the strict injunction in 1387 by William of Wykeham that in future the old clothes of the Canons should be given to the poor shows that the rule of the Order in this respect had been disregarded.

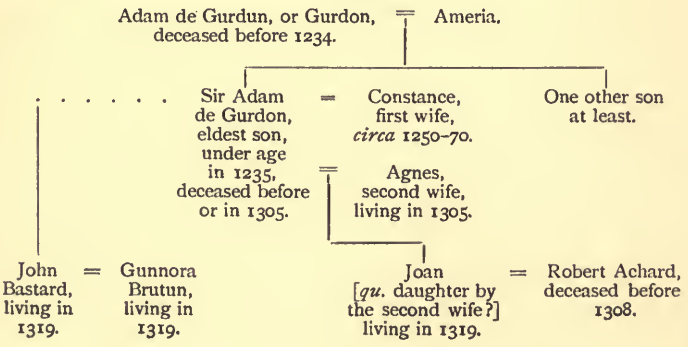
The entries relative to the family of Gurdon or Gurdun enable us to correct the account given by Gilbert White. He supposed that there was but one Adam Gurdun, the outlawed adherent of Simon de Montfort, who in 1266 fought his famous duel with Prince Edward, and that he married three wives, confusing in this way homonymous father and son. The pedigree really runs in this form:—



Adam de Gurdun, or Gurdon, deceased before 1234.
Ameria.
Sir Adam de Gurdon, eldest son, under age in 1235, deceased before or in 1305.
Constance, first wife, circa 1250–70.
Agnes, second wife, living in 1305.
One other son at least.
John Bastard, living in 1319.
Gunnora Brutun, living in 1319.
Joan [qu. daughter by the second wife?] living in 1319.
Robert Achard, deceased before 1308.

Of the prevailing pestilence and scarcity, involving a great rise in the price of all articles in common use, which are mentioned under the year 1352 as reasons for increasing the income of the then vicar of Selborne, there are notices in the Chronicles of Higden, Geoffrey Baker, a continuator of Murimuth, and Walsingham. The latter records that England, always so fertile, was in the following year driven to seek corn from other countries, no rain falling from March to July, and that the Duke of Zealand sent many ship-loads; while Baker mentions that corn was also imported from Ireland.

In the Church of the Priory there were, besides the high altar, altars of the Blessed Virgin, of St. Peter, St. Stephen, and St. Katherine. The inventories of church goods in the years 1442 and (probably) 1445, as well as that of goods and books remaining in 1490, are interesting, particularly in the enumeration of the few relics which the Priory (as a necessary part of its furnishing) possessed. The ear of St. John, as entered in the table of 1442, becomes three years after the bone of the ear-finger (i.e. of the little finger) of St. John Baptist, which seems to show some doubt alike as to its ownership and its anatomy. The ring of St. Hippolytus, bishop of Ostia in the first half of the third century, would scarcely have been looked for in an obscure priory in Hampshire in the fifteenth. But for the authenticity of the remainder of the relics the Sacrist could no doubt speak with a little more certainty; the ring of St. Edmund Rich of Canterbury, who was primate when the Priory was founded, and the chafing-dish and comb and a finger-joint of St. Richard of Chichester, who died twenty years after the foundation, were no doubt veritable relics of the persons whose names they bore. It is curious that the joint-bone (if that is the meaning of the unregistered word "junctorium") of the latter would seem to have been acquired during the short interval between the two inventories of 1442 and 1445, since it is not mentioned in the first of these. There were also five relics undescribed, enclosed in a small cross. Nothing has been left on record to show what became of these relics after the suppression of the Priory. Probably they were removed to the College, but no notice of them has been met with in registers or inventories there.[1]

In 1251 we find an agreement made beforehand with Sir James de Norton, with regard to possible future disputes as to trespass by cattle, for the referring of such cases to the arbitration of good men meeting in the churchyard of Selborne, instead of having recourse to suits at law. In 1253 Aylmer de Lusignan, de Valence, half-brother of King Henry III, for ten long years, from 1250 to 1260, the justly unpopular bishop elect, but not consecrated, of Winchester, and who died very shortly after consecration, is found borrowing "for his necessity" the large sum of 200 marks from the Priory, to be repaid in two years and a half. In that year, as we learn from Matthew Paris, an aid of forty shillings from each knight's fee was granted to the King for the knighting of his son Edward, and a writ was issued for compelling Aylmer's tenants to pay their quota;[2] possibly the "necessity" which demanded the loan may have arisen from difficulties in connection with this taxation.

The succession of Priors of Selborne is as follows. The names and dates placed within brackets are supplied by Gilbert White, and in the last edition of Dugdale, but do not occur in these charters or in the others preserved in Magdalen College. The dates are the earliest and latest for which authority can be found.

[1] It may be worth while to note here the meaning of some words in these Selborne inventories which are not of frequent occurrence. Offertoria = chalice-veils; ridelli = curtains; costrellum = a large wooden jug; tunicæ de ray = tunicles of striped cloth; par vestimentorum de borde Elesaunder = a pair of chasubles with border of Alexandrian work, i.e. of striped silk. In a very long sacrist's inventory of vestments, books, ornaments, etc., for use in Magdalen College Chapel in 1481, we have for the seven altars, for week-day use, "xii paria vestimentorum sacerdotalium de Bordalysaundere cum scutis de aliis in dorso"; and again, "duos pannos de Bordalysaunder chekere pro ambonibus."

1234—1258, dom. John.
1261, R[ichard] of Kent. The editors of Dugdale give "Nich. de Cantia," a misprint for "Rich. de Cantia," to whom the temporalities were restored 24th Dec. 46 Hen. III, 1261.[1]
1267—1271, dom. Peter de Disenhurst, or d'Isenhurst.
1277—1291, Richard.
[1299, March—1324] William [de Basing]. Died 17 Edw. II, 1324. The royal licence to elect his successor is dated 25 Aug.[2]
[1324]—1339, dom. Walter [de Insula or de L'Isle.]
[1339, John de Winton.]
1352—1357, Edmund (not in White or Dugdale).
1364—1366, Nicholas (not in White or Dugdale).
[1377]—1392, Thomas [Weston].[3]
[1410]—1413, John Wynchestre.
1415—1453, John Stepe.
[1454—1468], Peter Bernes.
1468—1471, John Morton.
[1471, William Wyndesor; prior for a few days, but removed because irregularly elected.]
[1471, Thomas Farwill, or Fairwise].
[1472—1478], Peter Bernes, re-elected.
1479, John Scherpe, or Sharp.
1484, Thomas Assheford.

One name of which casual mention occurs must not be passed over without notice. In the writ directed in 1425 to Thomas Chaucers (sic) as keeper of Wolmer Forest, we meet with the eldest son of the poet as holding an office which does not appear to be named in connection with him in printed accounts elsewhere.

With regard to place-names in the Index the Editor has endeavoured (with the kind assistance in several instances of the Dean of Winchester) to group the names of hamlets, manors, lands, etc., under the parishes to which they belong. But ignorance on his part of the archaic or extinct forms of local nomenclature in Hampshire may possibly have involved mistakes here and there which those who know the difficulty of verification in such cases will, he is assured, forgive. A few names of hamlets which occur often, e.g. Oakhanger in its different forms, he has indexed separately, on account of their greater prominence. With regard to this name a happy conjecture was made by J. M. Kemble in his index of places in the Codex Dipl. Anglo-Sax.; he there affixes to the name Achangra the guess, that its present form might be expected to be Oakhanger if such a place should be found in Hampshire.

No formal Register of the Priory exists in Magdalen College, nor is one to be found in the Public Record Office, the British Museum, or the Bodleian Library.

CHARTERS AND DOCUMENTS RELATING TO SELBORNE PRIORY.

[c. 1190—1200.] Grant from Ralph de Herpendena to William de Venuiz to make a ditch through the middle of his land, so that the water may come to the mill of the said William, as great and as long as he pleases, and this ditch the said William owes (debet) to hold of the grantor and his heirs by an annual rent of 16*d.* This is done with the consent of the grantor's lord, Gillebert Oin, of whom he holds his land; with whose seal he has sealed this deed because he has no seal of his own. Witn.: Roger de Newburgh (Nouo Burgo) Rich. de Herierd, Philip de Stane, Peter de Stane, Rich. de Burhunt, Rich. de Nortune, Peter de Venuiz, Hugh de Craucumb, Osm[er], Roger the Forester, Rob. Oiselur (i.e., the Fowler), Peter de Heges, Will. Foxele, Henry Wiard, John de Chaltun, Robert son of Elur[ed], John de Westcote, Hugh the chaplain of Aweltun, who wrote the deed.—[388.]

Seal lost, but its silken strings remain.

[c. 1200.] Grant from Ralph de Harpendene to William de Venuz of the water-course of Beme, through the middle of the land of the grantor, to make a pool for his mill of Sidenemed as large and as deep as he pleases, by the grant of the lord of the said Ralph, Gillebert Oin, of whom he holds that fee; paying annually to the grantor a quit-rent of sixteenpence. Witn.: Will. Peche, Reginald de Halesete, Peter de Heyes, Will. Swele, Robert son of Elured, John de Westcote, Henry Wiard, Henry Waleis, Geoffrey de Staiford, Alan son of Peter de Heyes, Nicholas son of Robert son of Elured, Hugh de Craucumb, John son of Richard the clerk, Gillebert de Dene, Alan de Holt, Robert Oiselur, Osm[er] the forester, Roger the forester, Geoffrey de Venuiz, Hugh the chaplain of Aweltun.—[307.]

Round brown seal; a kind of fleur-de-lis: "Sigill' Rad. de Harpedene."
A copy on paper, made towards the end of the fourteenth century.—[308.]

[c. 1210–15.] Grant from William de Venuz to Gilbert atte Dene of one virgate of land in Achangre to the use of Richard, son of the said Gilbert, and of Lucy, the grantor's daughter, namely, that virgate which he held of his lord John, by the grace of God King of England, to be given by the said Gilbert to the said Richard and Lucy in marriage-dowry, as soon as they come to marriageable years, to hold to them and their heirs of body, paying to the King 10*s.* annually; with reversion, failing issue, to the grantor. And the bounds of the said virgate begin at the stone bridge of Achangre to the west, through the lands of Gilbert Oyn and of Walter Burdeaus, and through the wood of Sir Robert de Mauduyt, and near (juxta) Bines Wythe and near (prope) Kyngesly, and through the lands of Ralph de Harpedene, by the old bank which goes down from the mill by Sydenemede, and from thence the same bank divides the virgate from the land of Gilbert Oyn up to the said stone bridge. Witn.: Roger de Newburgh (Novo Bourgo), Philip de Stane, Richard de Nortune, Richard de Bourhunte, John de Westcote, John de Andevere the forester, John son of Richard the clerk, Hugh the chaplain of Aulton, Alan son of Peter de Heȝes.—[169.]

Seal lost, but silken strings remain.

1228–29. Release from Richard [Poore], Bishop of Durham, to Peter [de Roches], Bishop of Winchester, for the sum of 70 marks, of all his right in one virgate of land in Tistede, about which they had had a contention in the Court of King Henry. Sir M. de Pateshulle, Dean of St. Paul's, London,[1] and Sir Stephen de Segrave attach their seals, at the request of the said Richard, together with his own. Witn.: Josceline Bp. of Bath, Ralph Bp. of Chichester, Walter Bp. of Carlisle, Robert de Lexintune, W. de London, H. de Breibroc, John de Baioc' [i.e. Bayeux], Will. de Raleghe, W. de York ["Eboraco."]—[243.]

Three seals tied up in wool; the first, representing the Annunciation, broken.

[c. 1230.] Grant from William de Arundel, son of Hugh de Arundel, to master Andrew of Winchester, of all the land which William Ordric held in Ledessete with the messuage, and all the briary (brueram) next before the gate of the messuage which is included between the way going from Ledessete to Burdunesdene on the right hand and the way which extends to la Rudeherne; paying an annual quit-rent of 6*d.* Witn.: Adam de St. Manevedo, Will. de Brembelchete, Barthol. de Ellestede, Tomas de Warbeltone, Peter de Warbeltone, Ralph de Wulfbeding, Thomas Makerel, Geoffrey de Arundel, Hugh de Arundel, Walter de Arundel, Huges de Warbelton, Will. de Widehale, Peter le Tallur.—[286.]

Round green seal, attached by dark strings; shield of arms rudely cut, apparently three lions ramp.: "Sigill' Will'i de Arundel."

[1] Appointed Dean of St. Paul's in 1228; died 14 Nov., 1229.

[c. 1230.] Release from Henry de Ysenherst to master Andrew, rector of the church of Chalvedone, of all his right in the lands which the said Andrew had by the gift of William de Arundel in the manor of Lidesete; notwithstanding the gift made by the said Andrew to the said Henry. Witn.: John de Venuz, John de Windelsore, John de la Stane, Mathew de Monasterio, James de Hokangre, Roger de Bradesete, Peter de Warbeltone.—[227.]

Round red seal; an antique intaglio; a winged figure, with the motto added round it, "$\overline{\text{XPC}}$ vincit, $\overline{\text{XPC}}$ regnat, $\overline{\text{XPC}}$ imperat."

[c. 1230.] Grant from James de Nortone to Roger de Chorlecote, for the sum of nine marks, of Adam de la Wike and Herbert of the same vill, in their homages and services, lands and rents, etc.; rendering annually one pair of gloves, value one penny. Witn.: Sir John de Venoiz, Sir Thomas Makerelle, Laurence de Heges, James de Achangre, Gilibert Conan, Mathew de Monasterio, Geoffrey de la Rude.—[179.]

Triangular green seal; a blank triangular shield within an orle: "Sigill' James [sic] de Nortune."

[c. 1225–30.] Grant from William de Arundel to the lady Sabina his sister, for the support of his daughter Maud, of that land in the vill of Lidesethe which Richard de Dunewatere held according as the hedge extends to "cheveriam," and from "cheveria" to the hedge which Ralph de la Rude held, and according as the hedge extends to the grove, and afterwards as the boundaries are marked up to the water-course, and so, opposite (contra) the water-course, to the well of Dunwatere; paying annually to him a quit-rent of one pair of gloves, worth one penny; in order that she may honourably provide for his daughter in the world or in some religious house, and if she be not provided for, then the said land shall revert to her upon the death of the said Sabina, or if she have deceased, then to some one of his children (puerorum). He grants also to the said Sabina to have 100 two-year old sheep in the common pasture, and twenty pigs in his woods free of pannage, excepting his new land (salvo frico meo), and twelve cows and twenty beasts in the common pasture. Witn.: Hugh de Cumbe, Will. de Brambelsete, Alan de St. Man[evedo], Will. Frest' [the Forester?], Hugh de Arundel, John Frest' [Forester?], Mathew rector of the church of Brembelsete, Henry de Bromels', Will. de Widehale, Peter Taillur.—[287.]

Round red seal; shield of arms rudely cut, apparently three lions ramp.: "Sigill' Will'i de Arundel."

[c. 1230–35.] Grant from Henry le Sauvage to Peter, Bishop of Winchester, for the sum of twelve marks, of all his land which he had in

Tystede by the gift of Ralph de Winesham, rendering annually one pound of cummin to the chief lord of the fee. Witn.: Roger Alis, Geoffrey de Rupibus, Thomas de Gimiges, Walter de Thigheburne, Robert Lohade, John de Venuez, Thomas de Venuez, William son of Unfrid, Roger de Molend[inis], Alard his brother, Elyas son of Roger, Nich. de Sirlege, Godfrey the Serjeant (serviente) of Cheritone.—[355.]

Oval green seal; the temptation of Adam and Eve: "Sigill': Henrici Savvage."

[c. 1230–35.] Grant from William de Arundel, son of Hugh de Arundel, to master Andrew of Winchester, of the same lands and pasturage for cattle, etc., as are granted in the deed 280, infra under date c. 1237, to the Prior and Canons of Seleburne, described in the same terms, and paying the same annual quit-rent of 12*d.* Witn.: Sir John de Venuz, Sir Adam de St. Manevedo, Sir William de Bremlessete, Thomas de Warbeltone, Peter de Warbeltone, Henry de Ysenherst, Walter de Arundel, Will. de Widenhale, Thomas de la Stiepe, Peter le Taillur, Mathew son of Nicholas, Otte Wy (sic).—[282.]

Round green seal; a lion courant: "Sigill' Will'i de Arundel."

Another original copy of the same grant, written by a somewhat earlier hand. Same witnesses ("Steipe," "Teillur," the last name written as one word, "Ottewy") and seal.—[283.]

A third original copy by a third hand, in which, however, there is a stipulation forbidding the grant of the property to any religious house; therefore a little earlier than either of the preceding, in both which this stipulation is omitted. Same witnesses ("Brambelsete"). Round green seal, partly broken, attached with silk strings; shield of arms rudely cut, apparently three lions ramp.: "Sigill' W . . . . . [Ar]undel."—[285.]

[c. 1230–40.] Grant from Adam de Rutherefeld to Roger de Cherlekote, for the sum of 100 shillings, of all his meadow of Ochangre, both that which he holds of the King, and that which he holds of the lord of Ochangre, and all the tenement which he holds there; paying an annual quit-rent to the grantor of a pair of white gloves worth one penny, and to the lord of Ochangre of 8*d*, and saving to the King the service due for such a holding. Witn.: Sir John de Venuz, Sir John de la Stone, James de Nortune, Thomas Makerel, Will. de Brambelsate, Will. de Arundel, Laur. de Hegez, Nich. of the Mills ("de Molendinis"), Rich. de Wescote, Mathew de Monasterio, Henry de Ysenhurst, Rich. de Aweltune.—[149.]

Round green seal; an eagle volant: "Sigillum Ad. . de Rederafeld."

[c. 1230–40.] Grant from Henry de Borrunthe to Gilebert his brother, for the sum of 30 shillings "in gersoma præ manibus" of all the land which the hedge beginning at Wyemerslade and extending to the way before the field which Richard Koterel ploughed up ("assartavit"), and the ditch made on the side of the wood of the same Henry de Borrunthe, include; and two acres of land before his (Gilebert's) gate, near the great way leading from Brontelstapele to Soynthone, and all the land which Robert the Carpenter held in the same field; paying an annual quit-rent of 12*d.*, and to the King as much as is due for the fourth part of a furlong. Witn.: Oliver the chaplain of Seleborne, Sir James de Nortone, Will. de Hockangre, Thomas Makerel, Mathew son of the Dean, Gilebert de Golleia, Roger de Bradesite, Godefrey son of the Dean, who wrote the deed.—[16.]

Round brown seal, attached by green strings, inscription broken; a fleur-de-lis: "Sigil' Henrici . . . . ."

[c. 1230–40.] Grant from Sabina the daughter of Hugh de Arundel to Sir William de Arundel, her brother, of all her land of la Dumwatere in Lideschete, which land he had before given to her for her life. Witn.: Sir Adam de St. Manevedo, Sir William de Brembescete, Thomas de Warbeltone, Henry de Isenherst, Walter de Arundel, William de Widehale, Thomas de Stipe, Peter le Taillur, Matthew de Bocham.—[13.]

Seal lost.

1233. Grant from James de Ochangre to Peter, Bishop of Winchester, in free alms, for the sum of 16 marks, of all his croft called La Liega, to make there a religious house of the order of St. Augustine in honour of God and of the glorious V. Mary; viz. that which going down from the water of Seleburne goes southward by ("per") the meadow which Robert de Hundesham once held, and by the brook going down from Cratewelle to the land of John de Ochangre, the grantor's uncle, and westward from the brook to the land called Thornwich. Witn.: Richard parson of Gretham, Oliver parson of Stoke, Guy chaplain of Seleburne, John de Windlesore, Will. de Ho, James de Northune, Nicholas of the Mills ("de Molendinis"), Roger le But, Gilebert Conan, Gilebert de Burhunte, clerk, John de Ochangre.—[53.]

Round green seal; a man on horseback: "S' James (sic) de Hocaungre."

1233. Another grant from "James" (sic) de Ochangre to the Bishop of Winchester of the same croft called La Lyge, for the same purpose, and for the same sum. Witnesses the same (Oliver parson of Stokes, John de Windelesore.)—[54.]

1233. Grant from James de Ochangre to Peter, Bishop of Winchester, for the sum of 40 marks, of the croft called la Lyghe, which goes down by the brook descending from Cratewelle to the land which John de Achangre, the grantor's uncle, held on the west of the brook, and extends from the brook westward to the land called Thornwik; also a croft called Brodecrofte which the said John his uncle held, opposite Edithesgrove up to the croft called La Bechecrofte; also a croft which Gilebert de Wik formerly held, near Brodecrofte and near the grantor's wood. Also a croft which Ralph le Niweeman held. Also a croft called Cavelescroft extending from a corner of the croft called la Lyghe to a corner between the grantor's wood and the wood which Rob. de la Rode held, alongside of the wood of de la Rode to the land of Thomas Coterel. Also a croft which Adam le But formerly held, with two increments of land on S. and E.:—in order to enlarge and make therein a religious house of the order of St. Augustine. Witn.: Richard parson of Gretham, Oliver parson of Stokes, Guy chaplain of Seleburne, John de Wyndleshore, Will. de Ho, James de Nortune, Nicholas of the Mills, Roger But, Gilbert Cunan, Gilbert de Burhunte, clerk, John de Achangre.—[55.]

Foundation-Charter by Peter de Roches, Bishop of Winchester.

1233[–4], 20 Jan. Omnibus Christi fidelibus ad quos præsens scriptum pervenerit, P[etrus], divina miseracione Wintoniensis ecclesiæ minister humilis, salutem in Domino. Ex officio pastorali tenemur viros religiosos, qui pauperes spiritu esse pro Christo, neglectis lucris temporalibus, elegerunt, speciali affectu diligere, fovere pariter et recreare, eorumque quieti sollicite providere; ut tanto uberiores fructus de continua in lege Dei meditatione percipiant, quanto a conturbationibus malignorum amplius fuerint, ex patroni provisione et ecclesiastica defensione, securi. Hinc est quod universitati vestræ notificamus, nos divine caritatis instinctu, de assensu conventus ecclesiæ nostræ Wintoniensis, fundasse domum religiosam, ordinis magni patris Augustini, in honore Dei et gloriosæ semper virginis ejusdem Dei genetricis Mariæ, apud Seleburne, ibidemque canonicos regulares instituisse: ad quorum sustentationem et hospitum et pauperum susceptionem, dedimus, concessimus, et præsenti carta nostra confir-mavimus, eisdem canonicis, totam terram quam habuimus de dono Jacobi de Acangre : et totam terram, cursum aquæ, boscum et pratum, quæ habuimus de dono Jacobi de Nortone ; et totam terram, boscum, et redditum, quæ habuimus de dono domini H[enrici] regis Angliæ ; cum omnibus prædictarum possessionum pertinentiis. Dedimus etiam et concessimus in proprios usus eisdem canonicis ecclesiam prædictæ villæ de Seleburne, et ecclesias de Basinge et de Basingestok, cum omnibus earundem ecclesiarum capellis, libertatibus, et aliis pertinentiis ; salva honesta et sufficienti sustentatione vicariorum in prædictis ecclesiis ministrantium ; quorum præsentatio ad Priorem prædictæ domus religiosæ de Seleburne et canonicos ejusdem loci inperpetuum pertinebit. Præterea possessiones et redditus, ecclesias sive decimas, quas in episcopatu nostro adempti sunt, vel in posterum, Deo dante, justis modis poterunt adipisci, sub nostra et Wintoniensis ecclesiæ protectione suscepimus, et episcopalis auctoritate officii confirmavimus ; eadem auctoritate firmiter inhibentes, ne quis locum in quo divino sunt officio mancipati seu alias eorum possessiones invadere, vi vel fraude vel ingenio malo occupare audeat vel etiam retinere, aut fratres conversos, servientes, vel homines eorum, aliqua violentia perturbare, sive fugientis ad eos causa salutis suæ conservandæ a septis domus suæ violenter præsumat extra[h]ere. Præcipimus autem ut in eadem domo religiosa de Seleburne ordo canonicus et regularis conversatio, secundum regulam magni patris Augustini, quam primi inhabitatores professi sunt, inperpetuum observetur ; et ipsa domus religiosa a cujuslibet alterius domus religiosæ subjectione libera permaneat, et in omnibus absoluta ; salva in omnibus episcopali auctoritate et Wintoniensis ecclesiæ dignitate. Quod ut in posterum ratum permaneat et inconcussum, præsenti scripto et sigilli nostri patrocinio duximus confirmandum. His testibus ; domino Waltero, Abbate de Hyda ; domino Waltero, Priore de Sancto Swiðuno ; domino Stephano, Priore de Motesfonte ; magistro Alano de Stoke ; magistro Willelmo de Sanctæ Mariæ Ecclesia, tunc officiali nostro ; Luca, archidiacono de Surreia ; magistro Humfrido de Millers ; Henrico et Hugone capellanis ; Roberto de Clinchampe et Petro Rossinol, clericis ; et multis aliis. Datum apud Wlvese per manum P. de Cancellis, in die sanctorum martirum Fabiani et Sebastiani, anno Domini millesimo ducentesimo tricesimo tercio.—[6.]

Charter of Liberties from Henry III.

1234, 10 April. Henricus Dei gratia Rex Angliæ, Dominus Hiberniæ, Dux Normanniæ, Aquitaniæ, et Comes Andegaviæ, Archiepiscopis, Episcopis, Abbatibus, Prioribus, Comitibus, Baronibus, Justiciariis, Vicecomitibus, Præpositis, Forestariis, Ministris, et omnibus Ballivis et fidelibus suis, salutem. Sciatis nos, intuitu Dei et pro salute animæ nostræ et animarum antecessorum et heredum nostrorum, dedisse concessisse et hac carta nostra confirmasse pro nobis et heredibus nostris Priori Sanctæ Mariæ de Seleburne et Canonicis ibidem Deo servientibus, quod ipsi et eorum successores inperpetuum habeant per terras et tenementa sua quæ habent in Seleburne, Achangre, Nortone, Bromdene, Thetdene, Basinghes, Basinghestokes, Nateleye, cum pertinenciis, Thol et Theam et Infangenethef et Utfangenethef, et quod ipsi et successores eorum et omnes homines eorum de prædictis terris et tenementis sint quieti inperpetuum erga nos et heredes nostros, et erga Vicecomites, Constabularios, Prepositos, et omnes Ballivos nostros, per totam terram nostram, de Thelonio, Passagio, Pontagio, Lestagio, Tallagio, Stallagio, et conductu thesauri, et de operationibus castellorum, domorum, murorum, fossatorum, pontium, calcetorum, vivariorum, vinariorum, stagnorum, et clausuris parcorum, et de omnibus aliis operationibus, et de sectis Syrarum, Hundredorum, de auxiliis Vicecomitum et Ballivorum suorum, et de murdro et francoplegio, et de visu franciplegii, et de misericordiis, et de finibus pro transgressionibus et misericordiis, et pro licentia concordandi, et de escapio latronum, et de bobus de seisina, et de placitis, querelis, et exactionibus omnibus ad nos et heredes nostros, et Vicecomites, Constabularios, vel aliquos alios ballivos nostros pertinentibus. Concessimus etiam eisdem Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus quod nullus Vicecomes Constabularius aut aliquis alius Ballivus noster ingressum vel posse habeat in prædictis terris et tenementis, set totum ad eosdem Priorem et Canonicos et successores suos et eorum Ballivos pertineat, præter attachiamenta de placitis coronæ, ad quæ quidem cum Coronatores venerint facienda, ea ita faciant quod in nullo lædatur libertas prædictorum Prioris et Canonicorum et successorum suorum. Omnes autem prædictas libertates concessimus ita quod omnes homines sui de eis tenentes in eisdem terris et tenementis subsint et respondeant et satisfaciant prædictis Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus, et nulli alii, nisi de voluntate eorundem Prioris et Canonicorum et successorum suorum, de omnibus prædictis præter attachiamenta de placitis coronæ, sicut nobis aut heredibus nostris aut vicecomitibus aut constabulariis aut aliis ballivis nostris, subessent et responderent et satisfacerent de eisdem si ad nos prædicta terræ et tenementa cum pertinentiis pertinerent. Concessimus autem eisdem Priori et Canonicis quod ipsi et eorum successores distringere possint omnes homines suos de prædictis terris et tenementis ad omnia prædicta præter attachiamenta de placitis coronæ sicut nos ad eadem eos distringere possemus, aut heredes nostri, aut vicecomites aut constabularii aut aliqui alii ballivi nostri, si prædictæ libertates aut quietanciæ concessæ non fuissent. Concessimus etiam eisdem Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus quod omnes homines eorum de prædictis terris et tenementis sint liberi et quieti inperpetuum de omnibus juratis et assisis et recognitionibus faciendis, præterquam in attingendis propriis dominicis nostris si opus fuerit infra comitatum ubi manentes sunt si forte contentio inter nos ipsos et alios oriatur. Ita quod occasione talis juratæ, si forte evenerit, per vicecomites vel alios ballivos nostros non occasionentur, nec libertas eorundem Prioris et Canonicorum vel successorum suorum in aliquo lædatur. Concessimus insuper eisdem Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus quod si aliquis hominum suorum de prædictis terris et tenementis pro delicto suo vitam aut membrum debeat amittere, vel fugerit et judicio stare noluerit, vel aliud delictum fecerit pro quo debeat catalla sua perdere, ubicunque justitia fieri debeat sive in curia nostra sive in alia curia, omnia catalla illa sint prædictorum Prioris et Canonicorum et successorum suorum, et liceat eis sine disturbatione[1] vicecomitum et quorumcumque ballivorum nostrorum et aliorum ponere se in seisinam de prædictis catallis in prædictis casibus et aliis, quando ballivi nostri si ad nos pertinerent catalla illa in manum nostram ea seisire possent et deberent. Concessimus præterea eisdem Priori et Canonicis quod quotienscunque aliqui malefactores capti fuerint in prædictis terris et tenementis cum pertinentiis per ballivos eorundem Prioris et Canonicorum vel successorum suorum de quibus non possit vel non debeat fieri judicium in curia eorum, vicecomites et ballivi nostri recipiant prædictos malefactores sine difficultate et dilatione super forisfacturam nostram, quandocumque ballivi prædictorum Prioris et Canonicorum vel successorum suorum dictos malefactores prædictis ballivis nostris liberare voluerint. Concessimus etiam prædictis Priori et Canonicis et successoribus suis quod habeant inperpetuum omnia amerciamenta de omnibus hominibus suis prædictarum terrarum suarum et tenementorum cum pertinentiis, quæ quidem amerciamenta ad nos vel heredes nostros vel ad vicecomites aut constabularios aut ad aliquos alios ballivos nostros possent pertinere si ipsa amerciamenta eis concessa non fuissent, et quod ipsi Prior et Canonici et eorum successores habeant potestatem ad distringendum omnes prædictos ad amerciamenta eis reddenda. Prohibemus insuper super forisfacturam nostram decem librarum ne quis de prædictis amerciamentis colligendis vel recipiendis sive districtione inde facienda nisi per voluntatem eorundem Prioris et Canonicorum et successorum suorum se intromittat. Concessimus etiam eisdem quod habeant in prædictis terris et tenementis suis cum pertinentiis omnia averia quæ vocantur Wayf et quod talliare possint homines suos quos habent in terris suis de Seleburne sine speciali mandato nostro quandocumque nos vel heredes nostri dominica nostra talliare fecerimus. Concessimus insuper pro nobis et heredibus nostris eisdem Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus quod licet aliqua libertatum per nos eis concessarum processu temporis quocumque casu contingente usi non fuerint, nichilominus tamen postea utantur libertate eadem sine contradictione aliqua, non obstante eo quod aliquo casu ea usi non fuerint. Concessimus etiam eisdem Priori et Canonicis et eorum successoribus quod prædictæ terræ suæ et tenementa in Seleburne, Achangre, Nortone, Basinges, Basingestokes, Nateleye, quæ sunt[1] infra forestam nostram, sint[2] inperpetuum quieta de vasto, regardo, et visu forestar[iorum], viridar[iorum], regardatorum, et omnium ministrorum suorum, [et quoad ipsos et successores suos deafforestata][3] et quod ipsi et omnes homines sui in prædictis terris et tenementis manentes sint inperpetuum quieti de sectis Swanimotorum et omnium aliorum placitorum forestæ, et de espeltamentis canum, et de omnibus summonitionibus, placitis, querelis, et exactionibus et occasionibus ad forestam et forestar[ios], viridar[ios], et eorum ministros pertinentibus. [Prohibemus insuper super forisfacturam nostram ne aliquis eis forisfaciat in aliquo contra hanc cartam nostram sub pœna viginti librarum, Quia eos et omnes res et possessiones suas in nostram specialem suscepimus protectionem].[4] Quare volumus et firmiter præcipimus pro nobis et heredibus nostris quod prædicti Prior et Canonici et eorum successores et omnes homines sui quos habent in prædictis terris suis et tenementis de Seleburne, Achangre, Nortone, Bromdene, Thetdene, Basinges, Basingestokes, Nateleye, cum pertinentiis, habeant et teneant inperpetuum prædictas libertates et quietancias et amerciamenta bene et in pace, integre et plenarie, in omnibus rebus et locis, ut prædictum est. Hiis testibus, venerabilibus patribus E[dmundo] Cantuariensi Archiepiscopo, J[ocelino] Bathoniensi, H[ugone] Elyensi, T[homa] Northwycensi, R[ogero] Londinensi, R[oberto] Sarum, et W[illelmo] Exoniensi Episcopis; R[icardo] Comite Cornubiæ et Pictaviæ; W[illelmo] de Ferar[iis] Comite Derby; J[ohanne] Comite Lincolniæ et Constabulario Cestriæ; S[tephano] de Segrave, justiciario Angliæ; W[illelmo] Comite Albemar[le]; Philippo de Albiniaco; Radulpho filio Nicholai; Hugone Dispensatore; Godefrido de Craucumbe; Galfrido Dispensatore; Galfrido de Cauz[1]; Bartholomæo Peche[2]; et aliis. Datum per manum venerabilis patris R[adulphi] Cycestrensis Episcopi Cancellarii nostri, apud Westmonasteriun, decimo die Aprilis anno regni nostri decimo octavo.[3]—[22, 23, 91].

Of this Charter there are three originals, varying, as seen above in one of the copies, in some details, as well as in occasional forms of spelling, but all dated alike. The inscription on the great seals attached to Nos. 22, 23, is slightly broken, but otherwise the seals are perfect and fine; of the seal attached to 91 there is only a fragment. The first is in a cover of blue serge, lined with flowered silk, and attached by red silk strings; the second is in yellow silk, with red strings; and the third in flowered woollen damask, with red and green silk strings.

1234, 9 March, 18 Hen. [III], at Northampton, "per manum Radulfi Cycenstren. episc. cancell." Grant from the King to Peter, Bishop of Winchester, of all the land and rent in the manor of Seleburne which master Stephen de Lucy formerly held, for the enlargement of the Priory and its buildings which the Bishop has there founded by the King's grant, in the land which he bought of James de Ochangre, with all liberties [everywhere] and with sok and sak, thol and them, infangenethef and utfangenethef and hamsocne and blodwite, and the money paid for murder, and forstal and flemenestriche, and acquittance from all scot and geld, and all aids of Kings and sheriffs and all their ministers, and from hidage and armies and scutage and tallage and shires and hundreds and pleas and quarrels and ward and wardpeny, and the works of castles and bridges and enclosures of parks, and carriage and sumage, and building and repairing of royal houses, and all other liberties and free customs. Witn.: J[ohn], Earl of Chester and Huntingdon, J[ohn de Laci], Earl of Lincoln and Constable of Chester, W[illiam de Fortibus], Earl of Albemarle, S. de Segrave, Justiciary of England, Philip de Albiniaco, Hugh Dispenser, Bull of Pope Gregory IX, Confirming the Foundation of the Priory and Conferring Privileges.

1235, 1 Sept. Gregorius episcopus, servus servorum Dei, dilectis filiis Priori ecclesiæ de Seleburn, quoque fratribus tam præsentibus quam futuris regularem vitam professis inperpetuum: Quotiens a nobis petitur quod religioni et honestati convenire dinoscitur, animo nos decet libenti concedere, ac petentium desideriis congruum suffragium impertiri. Quapropter, dilecti in Domino filii, vestris justis postulationibus clementer annuimus, et ecclesiam beatæ Mariæ de Seleburn in qua divino mancipati estis obsequio sub beati Petri et nostra protectione suscipimus, et præsentis scripti munimine communimus. In primo siquidem statuentes ut ordo canonicus qui secundum Deum et beati Augustini regulam in eadem ecclesia institutus esse dinoscitur perpetuis ibidem temporibus inviolabiliter observetur. Præterea, quascumque possessiones, quæcumque bona, eadem ecclesia impræsentiarum juste ac canonice possidet, aut in futurum concessione pontificum, largitione regum vel principum, oblatione fidelium, seu aliis justis modis, præstante Domino, poterit adipisci, firma vobis vestrisque successoribus et illibata permaneant. In quibus hæc propriis duximus exprimenda vocabulis:—locum ipsum in quo præfata ecclesia sita est, cum omnibus pertinentiis suis; de Basinges et de Seleburn parrochiales ecclesias, cum de Basingestoke ac capellis aliis et omnibus pertinentiis suis; necnon terras et possessiones alias, cum pratis, nemoribus, usuagiis et pascuis, in bosco et plano, in aquis et molendinis, in viis et semitis, et omnibus aliis libertatibus et immunitatibus suis. Sane novalium vestrorum quæ propriis manibus aut sumptibus colitis, de quibus aliquis hactenus non percepit, sive de vestrorum animalium nutrimentis, nullus a vobis decimas exigere vel extorquere præsumat. Liceat quoque vobis clericos vel laicos liberos et absolutos e sæculo fugientes ad conversionem recipere, et eos absque contradictione aliqua retinere. Prohibemus insuper ut nulli fratrum vestrorum post factam in ecclesia vestra proiniquitate cognoscat, et a sacratissimo corpore ac sanguine Dei et Domini Redemptoris nostri Jesu Christi aliena fiat, atque in extremo fessionem fas sit sine prioris sui licentia, nisi artioris religionis obtentu, de ecclesia ipsa discedere; discedentem vero absque communium litterarum vestrarum cautione nullus audeat retinere. Cum autem generale interdictum terræ fuerit, liceat vobis nichilominus in vestra ecclesia, clausis januis, excommunicatis et interdictis exclusis, non pulsatis campanis, suppressa voce, divina officia celebrare, dummodo causam non dederitis interdicto. Crisma vero, oleum sanctum, consecrationes altarium seu basilicarum, ordinationes clericorum qui ad sacros fuerint ordines promovendi, a diocesano suscipietis episcopo si quidem catholicus fuerit et gratiam et communionem sacrosanctæ Romanæ sedis habuerit, et ea vobis voluerit sine pravitate aliqua exhibere. Prohibemus insuper ut infra fines parrochiæ vestræ nullus sine assensu diocesani episcopi et vestro capellam seu oratorium de novo construere audeat, salvis privilegiis pontificum Romanorum. Ad hæc, novas et indebitas [exactiones] ab archiepiscopis et episcopis, archidiaconis seu decanis, aliisque omnibus ecclesiasticis secularibusve personis, a vobis omnino fieri prohibemus. Sepulturam quoque ipsius loci liberam esse decernimus, ut eorum devotioni et extremæ voluntati qui se illic sepeliri deliberaverunt, nisi forte excommunicati vel interdicti aut etiam publice usurarii sint, nullus obsistat, salva tamen justitia ecclesiarum illarum a quibus mortuorum corpora assumuntur. Decimas præterea et possessiones ad jus ecclesiarum vestrarum spectantes quæ a laicis detinentur redimendi et legitime liberandi de manibus eorundem, et ad ecclesias ad quas pertinent revocandi, libera sit vobis de nostra auctoritate facultas. Obeunte vero te nunc ejusdem loci Priore vel tuorum quolibet successorum nullus ibi qualibet surreptionis astutia seu violentia præponatur nisi quem fratres communi consensu vel fratrum major pars consilii sanioris secundum Deum et beati Augustini regulam provideant eligendum. Paci quoque et tranquillitati vestræ paterna in posterum sollicitudine providere volentes, auctoritate apostolica prohibemus ut infra clausuras locorum seu grangiarum vestrarum nullus rapinam seu furtum facere, ignem apponere, sanguinem fundere, hominem temere capere vel interficere, seu violentiam audeat exercere. Præterea omnes libertates et immunitates a Romanis pontificibus ordini vestro concessas, necnon libertates et exemptiones secularium exactionum a Regibus et Principibus vel aliis fidelibus rationabiliter vobis indultas, auctoritate apostolica confirmamus et præsentis scripti privilegio communimus. Decernimus ergo ut nulli omnino hominum liceat præfatam ecclesiam temere perturbare aut ejus possessiones auferre vel ablatas retinere, minuere, seu quibuslibet vexationibus fatigare, sed omnia integra conserventur, eorum pro quorum gubernatione ac sustentatione concessa sunt usibus omnimodis profutura, salva sedis apostolicæ auctoritate ac diocesani episcopi canonici justitia. Siqua igitur in futurum ecclesiastica secularisve persona, hanc nostræ constitutionis paginam sciens, contra eam temere venire temptaverit, secundo tertiove commonita, nisi reatum suum congrua satisfactione correxerit, potestatis honorisque sui careat dignitate, reamque se divino judicio existere de perpetrata examine districtæ subjaceat ultioni. Cunctis autem eidem loco sua jura servantibus sit pax Domini nostri Jesu Christi, quatinus et hic fructum bonæ actionis percipiant, et apud districtum Judicem præmia eternæ pacis inveniant. Amen ac Amen.

1242, Sept. Indenture of an agreement between the Prior and Convent of Suwic' [Southwick] and the Prior and Convent of Seleburne, for the settlement of a suit which had been carried on before the Dean of Oxford and master Henry Bardolf, acting, by the Pope's authority, for the Prior of Christ Church of Twinham, respecting some tithes issuing from the land of la Pette and from the land of la Berghe, in the parish of Ymbesete, and respecting some others:—namely, that the Prior and Convent of Suwic' shall, by reason of the right which they have in their chapel of Ymbesete, receive all the tithes issuing from the land of la Pette, with all those issuing from all the demesne of the lord of Ymbesete, and the half of all those from the husbandmen ("colonis"), both free and villeins, and from their possessions, both moveable and immoveable, within the parish of Ymbesete, which they were wont to receive before the time of this composition: That the Prior and Convent of Seleburne, shall, in the name of their parish church of Seleburne, by reason of the partial right which they have in the tithes of the chapel of Ymbesete, receive the moiety of all the tithes of the said husbandmen and of their possessions, which they also had been accustomed to receive, with the moiety of all those issuing from the land of la Berghe, although it be in the lord's demesne. It is further agreed that this arrangement shall always stand, notwithstanding any changes in the lands to which it applies, and the following further points are added: 1. That (the vicar of Ymbesete being present and consenting), at all funerals of the parishioners of Ymbesete the chaplain of Seleburne shall celebrate the first mass, and the chaplain of Ymbesete the second, and all the oblations thereupon made shall be equally divided. 2. All legacies bequeathed by the said parishioners to the church of Seleburne, or to the chapel of Ymbesete, shall also be equally divided, but all personal legacies, left to certain persons or chaplains, shall abide by the testator's disposition. 3. The chaplain of Ymbesete shall yearly make a three-fold public denunciation of excommunication against those who maliciously withhold tithes. 4. The said chaplain has sworn, and the chaplain for the time being shall hereafter swear, to observe all that is contained in this composition, and shall make known anything done by any parishioner against the rights of either church.—[337.]

First seal (that of the ordinary, namely, master Albert de Vitriaco, official of Winchester during the vacancy of the see) lost; Second, oval, green, inscription broken, The Virgin and Child, seated: "Sigil' Sancte Marie d' . . . . ica;" counter-seal, The Virgin and Child, a figure kneeling below: "Sigill' Mathei Prioris d' S'wik."

Another grant of the same from the same donor, omitting the mention of the light of S. Katherine; somewhat later, as it seems, in date, as it says that Sibilia de la Lode "formerly" (aliquando) held the meadow and the four acres of the grantor. Witn. and seal the same.—[172.]

[c. 1280?] Release from William le Archer de la Rode and Alice his wife to the Canons of Seleburne of all their right in a piece of land which the said Canons have by the gift of William de la Rode and the said Alice who was then his wife. Witn.: Sir Adam Gurdun, Sir Thomas Paynel, knts., John de Venuz, James de Nortone, John de Westcote, John de Candevere.—[200.]

Two green seals; (1) round, apparently a shield bearing a bar between three crosses in chief and three in base: "S' Will. . . . . ;" (2) oval, the Lamb and Flag; "Ecce Agnus Dei."

[c. 1280–90.] Grant from William le Fughel of Seleburne to Walter the Hunter ("venatori") and Agnes his wife, for the sum of 6 marks, of all the land and garden which he had by the gift of the late James de Achangre at la Hunne, near the highway going from the Priory of Seleburne towards Blakemere, of which one acre with a croft lies near the wood of Will. de Achangre, which [acre] is called la Brok and extends to the meadow of Will. le Wrik on the east, and to the land of the late Rich. Holewe on the west; and which garden Will. de Blakewelle, chaplain, formerly farmed of the said James, together with a meadow adjacent which the said Will. Blakewelle formerly farmed of Peter de Cruce; paying annually to the Prior of Seleburne 12*d.*, and to Will. de Achangre 1*d.*, and to the grantor during his life one overcoat ("supertunicam") worth 2*s.* Witn.: Sir Adam Gurdon, knt., James de Nortone, Simon de Aula, Will. de Achangre, Henry de Estone, Will. Gervays, Nicholas de Thuddene, John his brother, Richard de Wescote, Walter Selede, clerk, Robert Marescall de la Wyke, Henry Wylekyng, Henry de la Rude.—[58.]

Oval green seal; a floriated cross: "S' Will'i Fu'gl." [James de Achangre was alive in 1277.]

[c. 1280–90.] Grant and quit-claim from John de Sutheneye and Alice his wife to William de la Rode, chaplain, for the sum of 6 marks, of all their right in the tenement of the late Richard Coterel at la Rode; rendering an annual quit-rent of one pound of cummin or 1*d.* Witn.: Will. de Achangre, Henry Wylekyng, Robert Marescall, Will. Sterghaf, John the Baker.—[365.]

Seal lost.

[c. 1280–90 ?] Copy, on paper, made in the 15th century (torn) of a grant from Jurdan de Westþrop to the Prior and Canons of Selbourne, in free alms, of 27*s.* 5*d.* of annual rent in the village of Thuddene; viz., from the tenement of Andrew de Heyes, 7*s.* 8*d.*; from that of Henry Rufus, 9*s.* 6*d.*; from that of Geoffrey Purchaz, 7*s.* 4*d.*; and from that of Robert Clyne, 2*s.* 11*d.*; also quit-claiming to the said Prior and Canons all the land which they have in the same village by the gift of Nicholas Swele, and 10*s.* of annual rent paid by them to him; but saving a quit-rent of 20*s.* to Robert Popham. (Witnesses omitted.)—[379.]

1281, 10 July, "die Jovis pr. p. transl. S. Tho. mart."; at Alresford. Certificate by J. de Tybenham, official of the archdeacon of Winchester, of an inquisition made on the above day by master John de Hegghemere and John de Shypedeham, perpetual vicar of Sutthone and dean of Alresford, in pursuance of a mandate from master Adam de Hale, keeper of the spiritualities of the bishopric of Winchester, in a full chapter of the deanery, respecting the vacant church of Westistede, of which they say that the Prior and Convent of Seleburne are the true patrons, and possessors as rectors from the time of Bishop Peter, and established their right against the claim of Sir Randulf de Cameys who presented master J. de Brydeport, now rector of Great Wordlam (see under date 1261), and that they have held it up to the time of Geoffrey de la Flode, now lord of the village; the church is worth 10 marks annually, and the person now presented is of good life and honest conversation and in priest's orders.—[276.]

The seals of the rectors and vicars of Chyldkandevere, of Candevere Abbots, of Aventone, Bradely and Sutthone, were attached with that of the official, but only small fragments remain of any.

[1281,] 30 Nov., "ij kal. Dec. an. 1 pontif.," "apud Urbemvetenem." Bull from Pope Martin [IV] to the Prior of Southwark, directing him to endeavour to recover for the monastery of Seleburne various tithes, lands, rents, houses, etc., which the Prior and Convent and their predecessors have granted away to various persons, to some for life, to others for a long time, and to others in perpetual farm, to the injury of the monastery.—[298.]

Leaden bulla lost.

1282, 12 April, "prid. idus Apr."; at Reading. Confirmation by John [Peckham], Archbishop of Canterbury, to the Prior and Convent of Seleburne, made in consequence of their request made to him when at their house in the course of his metropolitical visitation during the vacancy of the see of Winchester, of the appropriation of the churches of Seleburne, Basynges and Westysted, with the chapels dependent thereon.—[21.]

Oval green seal, attached by red and yellow silk strings; inscription broken; the Archbishop in attitude of blessing, on either side a lily of the valley: "Fr. (Frater) Joh'es Dei . . . . . ien tocius Anglie primas." No counter-seal.

Another copy, with the same date, in which the churches are specified as Seleburne, Basynggestoke, and Westistede, the title of the Convent having been ascertained "per examinationem privilegiorum et indulgenciarum vobis concessarum per nostros commissarios diligenter factam." Half of the seal, oval, green.—[98.]

1282, 26 Nov., "die Jovis pr. p. f. S. Katerine virg."; in the church of B. Mary of Suwerk. Judgment given by the Prior of Suwerk, the delegate appointed by the Pope, in a suit brought by the Prior and Convent of Seleburne against Gilibert, vicar of Imbesshete, for a moiety of the small tithes of the villeins of Imbeshete, of which the Convent had been in possession from the time of their foundation; in which he pronounces in favour of the Prior and Convent, and condemns the said Gilibert to pay 20 marks for the tithes of which he has deprived them.—[329.]

Another original copy of the decree. Seal the same: from the kneeling figure issues a scroll with the words "Ave . . . . . ." "[S] Alani prioris de Suwercka."—[345.]

1282, 17 Dec., "die Jov. pr. p. f. S. Lucie virg,"; in the chapel of the Holy Ghost at Basinggestoke. "Memorandum" that at an enquiry held by the official of the Bishop of Winchester respecting a claim made by Sir Richard, vicar of the church of Selebourne, to one quarter of wheat, one quarter of barley, one quarter of oats, and one quarter of beans, from the Prior and Convent of Selebourne, brother Richard de Portes, the proctor of the latter, produced an ordinance of W[ill. Raleigh] formerly Bishop of Winchester, and other instruments, by which it appeared that the said allowance was granted to a former vicar, Richard le Bel, only for his own personal merits and not by reason of his vicarage; and the claimant therefore acknowledged that he had no right to it.—[117.]

Small fragment of green seal.

1284, 9 Jan., "die domin. pr. p. Epiph. Dom."; 12 Edw. fil. Hen.; at Westistede. Release from Richard de Croftone, son and heir of Rob. de Croftone, to the Prior and Canons of Selborne, in free alms, of all his right in the advowson and patronage of the church of Westistede, and in the land called le Trandelcroft, which the said Prior and Canons have by the gift of the lady Joan le Hod. Easter Day fell on 6 April in 26 Edw. I.

[c. 1300.] Release for James de Nortone to the Prior and Convent of Seleburne of all his right to drive cattle, cars, and carts, or to ride, on any road in le Estfelde in Seleburne. Witn.: Sir John de Tycheburne, Sir Rob. de Popham, knts., John de Dandeure, Will. de Batesford, Henry Wyard, Will. Purchaz, John ate Halle, Will. Staunford.—[102.]

Round red seal of arms; a lion rampant: "S' Jacobi de Norton."

1301, 16 May, "die Martis pr. p. f. Asscen. (sic) Dom.," 29 Edw. [I]; at Halkangre. Confirmation and recital by Thomas Paynel of a charter by which James de Halkangre granted for the sum of 40*s.* to Will. le Fughel of Seleborne, and Alice his wife, his garden, which the Prior of Seleborne formerly held to farm of Will. de Blakewelle, chaplain, lying "a la Hunne" near the highway leading from the Priory to Blakemere, and also his garden with a meadow adjacent, which Will. de Blakewelle, chaplain, formerly farmed of Peter de Cruce near the said way "a la Hunne"; and also a croft with an increment of three perches in width and twenty-two perches in length up to the land of Will. le Wryk on the east, and to the land of Rich. Holeway on the west, between the grantor's wood of Halkangre and the said croft which John Holeway formally farmed of him; paying annually half a pound of pepper and a pair of gloves worth one penny. Witn. to the original grant: Sir Rob. de Popham, knt., Sir Thomas Makarel, knt., John de Burhunte, Andrew his brother, Will. de Arundel, Rob. Marescall de la Wyk, Peter the baker of Seleborne, Hugh the baker of the same, Richard, chaplain of Seleborne. Witn. to the confirmation: Sir Adam Gordon, knt., Sir John de Popham, knt., James de Northone, Rich. de Systede (sic), John de Venuz, Rich. de Westkote, Nich. de la Floude, Peter de

Heghe, Philip de Heyforde, Will. le Balun, Stephen de la Rude, Henry Wylekyng.—[56.]

Seal lost.

1302, 4 Aug., "ii non. Aug."; at Wolvese. Grant from John, Bishop of Winchester, to the Prior and Convent of Seleburne of the appropriation of the vicarage of Great Worldham to the Priory, on the cession or death of Rich. de la Barre, the existing vicar, the endowment being too small for the vicarage, which is hereafter to be served by one of the Canons; reciting the previous grant by the same Bishop dated at Suthwerk 12 cal. Maii 1293 (No. 211, supra), of the appropriation of the rectory at the petition of the Convent, on account of the smallness of their means, which were insufficient for the relief of the multitude of poor and sick persons which resorted to them.—[27.]

Fragment of oval green episcopal seal, with the lower part of the Bishop's figure . ". . . . . intonien E."

1305, 2 Feb., 33 Edw. I; at Walsingham. Writ from the King to the sheriff of Southampton to enquire "ad quod dampnum," if he should grant license to the Prior and Canons of Seleburne to hold twenty acres of land in Est Worldham with the advowson of the church, which they acquired from John de Venuz, (who held, as it is said, of the King in capite), long before the passing of the Statute of Mortmain.—[93(i).]

Endorsed, "Cepi diligenter inquisitionem, quam quidem inquisitionem vobis mitto huic bene consutam, sub sigillo meo et sigillis eorum per quorum sacramentum facta fuit, etc."

1305, 24 Feb., "die Merc. in f. S. Mathie apost.," 33 Edw. I; at Est Worldham. Return (sewn to the preceding writ) by Thomas de Warebeltone, sheriff of Southampton, of the Inquisition made in pursuance of the said writ by John de Popham, John de Basinges, John de Theddene ("þeddene"), Rich. de Tystede, Henry de Estone, Will. de Retherefeld ("Reþerefeld"), John Kernet, John de Corssaghe, Will. de Zabyntone, Hen. Wylekyng, James de Nortone, and Davyd de la Bere; who find that the proposed license will not be to the damage of the King or any one else; that the King receives from the present John de Venuz 100*s.* annually for the lands and tenements alienated by John his father; that the said twenty acres are worth 5*s.* a year, each acre being worth 3*d.*; that the said church is worth 8 marks yearly; and that the said Prior and Convent obtained them, in free alms, from John de Venuz, the father of the John that now is, twenty-nine years before the passing of the Statute of Mortmain.—[93(ii).]

No trace of the seals remains, but a strip appears to have been cut off from the foot of the return.

1305, 14 March, 33 Edw. [I]; at Westminster. Confirmation by the King to the Prior and Convent of Seleburne, in virtue of the preceding inquisition of 24 Feb., of their possession of the twenty acres of land in Est Worldham and of the advowson of the church.—[300.]

1339, 3 May, "die lune pr. p. f. apostt. Phil. et Jac."; 13 Edw. III; at Waltham. Grant from Roger de Tycchebourne, son and heir of Sir

John de Tycchebourne, knt., to the Prior and Convent of Selebourne, in pure alms, of all his tenement of la Rode, with all the rents and services of both freemen and serfs. Witn.: Sir John de Scures, Sir John de Roches, Sir Thomas de Coudray, Sir Rob. de Popham, Sir Thos. de Nortone, knts., Walter Wodelok, Nicholas atte Bere, William de Overtone, William de Overtone, junior, Will. Wodelok, Will. de Staunford, Valentine Bekk, John de Rutherfeld, Rich. le Beel.—[201.]

Small round red seal; a flower-pot (?); inscription illegible.

Another original copy of the same grant. (Valentine "Beck.") Fragment of seal.—[142.]

1350, 27 June, "die lune pr. p. f. S. Jo. Bapt.," 24 Edw. III; at La Rode. Grant from Joan, who was the wife of William ate Yerd of Bradeshite, to John le Hayward de la Rode, and Agnes his wife, of a messuage with a garden adjacent in la Rode near the priory of Selebourne, lying between le Park and the land of Nicholas Swel, and extending from the highway on the west to the meadow of . . . . . Pokewalle, and containing in the whole one "helvam." Witn.: John Purchas, Symon de Hezes, John de Hunte, Will. Holewey, John Smyth, Will. Tybaud, John Smoulyn, clerk.—[198.]

Round green seal; a spread eagle; inscription indistinct.

1352, 5 June, "nonas Junii"; at Winchester. Agreement (ratified by the official of Winchester) between Edmund ("Edũs") the Prior and Convent of Seleborne, as impropriators of the parish church of Seleborne with the chapels of Okhangre and Blakemere, and Sir Adam Seyncler, the perpetual vicar of the said church, for the increase of his insufficient stipend, in order to avoid a law-suit. On account of the present pestilence and the scarcity of the times, he is to receive annually for the term of his life a rent of 2*s.* 6*d.* from the tenement of the late John Bounde in Seleborne; with all the tithes of apples, pears and nuts, and all other fruit from the gardens and woods within the parish, excepting the tithe of apples from the garden of the Convent; the tithe of wool and of the mills, excepting those of the Convent; and the tithe of all hay, excepting the hay of the court ("de Cur'") of Gordon, Nortone, and Okhangre, and that of the demesne lands of the Convent originally assigned for the foundation of the conventual church. He shall have all this in augmentation of the vicarial portion for his life, and in lieu of all the small tithes from the lands and tenements of Gordon, Rode, and Tournours.—[36.]

Seal of the official of Winchester; oval, green; two saints; below, the motto "Juste judicate"; then, two bishops beneath a double-arched canopy: "Sig' Consistorii Wintonien." Another seal lost.

1352, 5 June, "nonas Junii"; at Winchester. Confirmation by Roger de Fulford, official of Winchester, of a similar agreement to the preceding (No. 36), between the Priory of Seleborne (by their proctor, Sir Ralph Tristram, rector of Gretham) and Sir Adam Seyncler, for the permanent endowment of the vicarage of Seleborne in future, as follows :—

1. The vicar shall have the house on the west side of the church, in which he at present lives, with the garden and curtilage, and a plot of ground contiguous with buildings on it, which was part of the land of the late Walter le Hunte.

2. A tenement called Prestishous, at Okhangre, with a garden, curtilage, and lands called Prestislondes, and the grass of the churchyard.

3. Four cartloads of wood annually from the nearest wood called Priouriswode.

4. One cartload of hay from the tithe-hay at Nortone.

5. One cartload of straw at the court-yard of Gordon ; each of these cartloads to be such as three horses can draw.

6. Tithe of agistments of all the animals agisted in the parish and chapelries.

7. Tithe of all lands under spade-cultivation.

8. All the tithes, great and small, from the tenements and lands of the Prior and Convent which were formerly Sir Adam Gordon's, knt., Cur' de Rode, and Alice Roberd's.

9. All the tithes from all the lands and tithable things of the Prior and Convent, within the parish of Seleburne, the tithe of corn, hay, apples, wool, and those from the demesne lands of the Priory at its first foundation, alone excepted.

10. All the tithes within Okhangre and Blakemere, excepting corn and hay.

11. All the oblations at the church and chapels in legacies and requests ("requestis").

12. The moiety of all the oblations at the chapel of Waddone.

13. The moiety of all oblations hereafter or newly arising in the parish, beyond those at the church and chapels of Okhangre and Blakemere which the vicar shall have entire.

14. The portions of accustomed small tithes coming from the churches or chapels of Hertley and Imbeshete.

The vicar shall find a chaplain to celebrate in the chapels of Okhangre and Blakemere. The Prior and Convent to bear all burdens, ordinary and extraordinary. Witn. : John de Ware, rector of Cranlegh, master Robert de Lemyntone, advocate of the Consistory (? "advocato const.") of Winchester, masters Roger Bryan and Will. de Peveseye, notaries public. Attested by Roger Bryan.—[372.]

Seal of the official, as with the preceding deed; blank fragment of another seal.

1357, 24 April, "apud Hockeday," 31 Edw. III; in the Court held at Seleborne. Lease from Edmund the Prior, and the Convent of Seleborne, to John Gurdon of two crofts containing thirteen acres in Westtystede, called Merefeld, lying separately between the lands of the said John on the north and west, and the land of John Goudman on the east, and the land of Thomas Abraham on the south, together with a way at the south end of the land of John Goudman; to hold for the lives of himself, his wife Joan, and his daughters Eufemia and Agnes successively, paying an annual rent of 8*s*. Witn.: Rich. le Muleward, Thos. Artour, John le Smyth, John le Rycher, Thos. de Westcote, Stephen Welewyk, Peter Fyges, Rich. de Tychebourne, Thomas Abraham.—[259]

Small fragment, white, of the Priory seal.

1357, 25 Sept., "die lune pr. ante f. S. Mich.," 31 Edw. III; at Seleborne. Assignment by Edmund the Prior and Convent of Seleborne to William Tribon for the term of his life of an annual rent of 8*s*. payable to the said Prior and Convent by John Gurdon, Joan his wife, and Femmota (sic) and Agnes his daughters, for the term of their lives, for the lands held by them in Westtistede. Witn.: Rich. de Tycheborne, John atte Mede, Thomas Abraham, Rich. Germayn, Rich. le Muleward, John le Smyth, Will. le Bakere.—[240.]

Seals lost.

1358, 2 Nov.; at London. Acknowledgment by Hugh Pelegrin, Treasurer of Lichfield, nuncio of the Apost. see in England, of the receipt from the Prior of Seleburn of 28*s*. due for his procurations for the sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth years of his stay as nuncio in England; for which he absolves him from all the sentences passed upon his proctor, master John Brown, on account of the delay.—[390.]

Fragment of red seal.

1375, 4 May. Similar acknowledgment by John de Cariloco, Prior of Lewes, commissary of John de Cabrespino, canon of Narbonne, the Papal collector. Small fragment of red seal.—[395(i)].

1362, 3 May, "die Martis in f. Invent. S. Crucis," 36 Edw. III; at Selebourne. Grant from John Grygge of Chiltecumbe to Sir Adam Seyncler of a cottage with a garden in le Rode called Goldhoppe, near the priory in the hundred of Selebourne; rendering annually one wax candle of one pound in weight, or 12*d*., at the feast of SS. Peter and Paul, to burn in the priory of Selebourne before the image of the said

Apostles. Witn.: Sir Ralph de Nortone, knt., Adam atte Burghe, John Smyht, Richard Muleward, Henry Mahu, Will. Bakere, Thos. Richer.—[191.]

Small round brown seal; very indistinct; a star, etc.

1362, 6 . . . .; at Farnham. Release granted by the Bishop of Winchester to the Prior and Convent of Selborne from a payment of £10 to which they were bound ratione subsidii.—[313.]

Fragment of seal, green.
(Partly illegible through damp, and the date torn.)

1364, 25 July, "die Jovis in f. S. Jacobi," 38 Edw. III; at Westtistede. Grant (indented) from Alice, widow of Richard de Tycheborne, lady of Westtystede, to Nicholas the Prior and Convent of Seleborne of a way beyond her "seperale" called le Brok in Westtystede, containing in length from the highway leading to Prenet to the field called Trandledefeld, and in width . . . . perches, to drive cattle, etc., but not to pasture there; paying to her and to her son Richard annually during their lives 12*d*., and to their heirs after their death one clove. Witn.: Roger Gervays, Thomas Canteshangre, Walter Fyrce, John de Zabynton, Will. le Clerk, John Gurdun.—[242.]

Round dark seal; apparently a lion seizing an eagle; inscription very indistinct.

1366, 12 March, "in f. S. Greg. pape.," 40 Edw. III. Lease from Nicholas the Prior and the Convent of Seleburne, to John Denemerch, his wife Rose, and their daughter Joan, for the term of their lives, of the three crofts of land with their meadow below the "coft" of West Wordlam which they have by the gift of Peter Dansy and Alan Musard, and also three and a half acres below the same in the field called Stabler, which Walter Goghe formerly held; together with heybote and hosebote in the wood of the said Prior and Convent lying between "le lyck" (?) of the lady Agnes Markaunte and that of John Pouleyn, to build upon the said land; paying to the said Prior and Convent 7*s*. annually, with a heriot and relief and suit of court at the two "laydays" of the court of Seleburne. Witn.: Sir Ralph Norton, knt., Sir Adam, vicar of Seleburne, Robert Dogettes, Thomas Messeger, John Poleyn of Westwordlam, Walter Sexten.—[221.]

Round white seal, very indistinct.

1366, 5 Aug., "die Merc. pr. ante f. S. Laur. mart.," 45 Edw. III; at Seleburne. Acknowledgment by John Smoghelyn (sic), of the city of Chichester, of the receipt from the Prior Nicholas and the Convent of Seleburne of 60*s*. in full payment of a bond for £20.—[62.]

Small round black seal; a merchant's mark with I.S. "Sigillum Joh'is Smolee" (sic).

1379, "die sabbati in f. S. Albani mart.," 2 Rich. II; in the Chapter House. Lease from Thomas the Prior and the Convent of Selbourne to William Kambere, Agnes his wife, and John their son, of the tenement with a garden, croft, and eight acres of arable land, in Selbourne, which were formerly Luke le Glasiere's; to hold for their lives at an annual rent of 10*s.*, with a heriot from the last survivor.—[46.]

Round pink seal, broken; a fleur-de-lis, "S' R'br'ti . . . . ." (yet said to be sealed with the common seal of the Priory).

Injunctions issued by William of Wykeham, Bishop of Winchester, after a personal visitation of the Priory:—

1387, 27 Sept. Willelmus permissione divina Wynton. Episcopus dilectis filiis Priori et Conventui prioratus de Selbourne, ordinis Sancti Augustini, nostræ dioceseos, salutem gratiam et benedictionem. Suscepti regiminis cura pastoralis officii nos inducit invigilare solicite nostrorum remediis subjectorum, et eorum obviare periculis, ac scandala removere, ut sic de vinea Domini per cultoris providi sarculum vitia extirpentur, inserantur virtutes, excessus debite corrigantur, et subditorum mores in nimium prolapsorum per appositionem moderaminis congrui reformentur. Hanc nempe solicitudinem nostris humeris incumbentem assidua meditatione pensantes, ne sanguis vestri de manibus nostris requiratur, ad vos et vestrum Prioratum supradictum, prout nostro incumbebat officio pastorali, nuper ex causa descendimus visitandi, et dum inter vos nostræ visitationis officium iteratis vicibus actualiter exercuimus, nonnulla reperimus quæ non solum obviant regularibus institutis, verum etiam quæ religioni vestræ non congruunt nec conveniunt honestati; ad quæ per nostrum antidotum debite reformanda, opem et operam, prout expedit et oportet, apponimus quas credimus efficaces. Infrascripta siquidem præcepta nostra, pariter et decreta sanctorum patrum, constitutionibus editis et debite promulgatis canonicisque ac regularibus institutis fulcita, vobis nostri sigilli roborata munimine transmittimus, inter vos futuris temporibus efficaciter observanda, quatinus ad Dei laudem, divini cultus ac vestræ religionis augmentum, ipsis mediantibus, per viam salutis feliciter incedatis, mores et actus vestri abstrahantur a noxiis et ad salutaria dirigantur.

The night and day Hours and the customary Masses to be attended and sung by all.

[I]. In primis, ut Domino Deo nostro, a quo cuncta bona procedunt et omnis religio immaculata sumpsit exordium, in Prioratu vestro prædicto serviatur laudabiliter in divinis, vobis in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ ac sub majoris excommunicationis sententiæ pœna firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus horæ canonicæ tam de nocte quam de die in choro a conventu cantentur; missæ quoque de beata Maria et de die, necnon missæ aliæ consuetæ, horis et devotione debitis et cum moderatis pausationibus celebrentur; nec liceat alicui de conventu ab horis et missis hujusmodi se absentare, aut postquam inceptæ fuerint ante completionem eorum ab ipsis recedere quovismodo, nisi ex causa necessaria vel legitima per priorem vel suppriorem vel alium præsidentem loci, ut convenit, approbanda, in quo casu ipsorum omnium conscientias apud Altissimum arctius oneramus; contrarium vero facientes in proximo tunc capitulo celebrando absque acceptione qualibet personarum regularum subeant disciplinam, acrius insuper puniendi si contumacia vel pertinacia delinquentium hoc exposcat. Si quis vero post trinam correptionem debite se non correxerit in præmissis, pro singulis vicibus quibus contrarium fecerit, ipsum singulis sextis feriis in pane et aqua dumtaxat præcipimus jejunare.

Contumacious absentees to fast on Fridays on bread and water.

The rules of silence to be observed.

[II.] Item, quia in visitatione nostra prædicta comperimus evidenter quod silentium, quasi in exilio positum, ad quod juxta regulam Sancti Augustini efficaciter estis astricti, locis et temporibus debitis inter vos minime observatur, contra observantias regulares, vobis omnibus et singulis firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus silentium, prout vos docet regula supradicta, de cætero locis et temporibus hujusmodi observetis, a vanis et frivolis colloquiis, sicut decet, vos penitus abstinendo: illos vero qui silentium hujusmodi in locis prædictis non observaverint animadversione condigna præcipimus castigari. Et si quis tertio super hoc legitime convictus fuerit, præter regularem disciplinam die quo debite silentium non tenuerit, pane et servisia dumtaxat et legumine sit contentus.

Masses for founders and benefactors to be duly celebrated.

[III.] Item, quia nonnulli concanonici et confratres prioratus vestri prædicti validi atque sani et in sacerdotio constituti celebrationem missarum absque causa legitima indebite ac nimis voluntarie multotiens, ut dicitur, negligunt et omittunt, fundatorum aliorumque benefactorum suorum animas pro quibus sacrificia offere tenentur suffragiis nequiter defraudando, vobis ut supra firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus vos omnes et singuli prioratus prædicti concanonici et confratres in sacerdotio constituti frequenter confiteamini confessoribus per Priorem deputandis, quos quidem confessores discretos et idoneos prout numerus personarum prædicti conventus exigit per vos dominum Priorem prædictum præcepimus deputari, missasque, impedimento cessante legitimo, tam pro vivis quam pro defunctis pro quibus orare tenemini de cætero quanto frequentius poteritis celebretis devotius, sicut decet; impedimentum vero prædictum cum contigerit, Priori vel Suppriori prioratus prædicti per illud patientes infra triduum declarari volumus et exponi, ac per eorum alterum prout justum fuerit approbari vel etiam reprobari, in quo casu ipsorum omnium tam exponentium quam approbantium apud Altissimum conscientias districtius oneramus; contrarium vero facientes primo super hoc convicti proxima quarta feria sequenti in pane, servisia et legumine, secundo vero convicti feria quarta et sexta sequentibus modo consimili, tertio vero convicti dictis feriis extunc sequentibus in pane et aqua jejunent quousque judicio Prioris se correxerint in præmissis. Statuentes præterea quod Prior et Supprior prioratus prædicti contra hujusmodi delinquentes semel singulis mensibus diligenter inquirant, et quos culpabiles invenerint in præmissis modo prædicto studeant castigare.

[IV.] Item, quia transitus communis sæcularium personarum utriusque sexus per claustrum Prioratus vestri incongruis temporibus nimium exercetur, et potissime horis illis quibus fratres de conventu in contemplatione sancta, studiis quoque ac lectionibus variis, inibi occupantur, unde dissolutiones plurimæ provenerunt, et poterunt in futuro verisimiliter provenire, ac ipsorum fratrum quieti et religionis honestati plurimum derogatur, vobis ut supra arctius injungendo mandamus quatinus, cum secundum regulam Sancti Augustini conversatio vestra debeat esse a sæcularibus hujusmodi separata, ad animarum ac etiam rerum pericula quæ possent et solent ex concursu hujusmodi provenire cautius evitanda, transitum communem prædictum per præfatum claustrum de cetero fieri nullatenus permittatis, per quem vestra devotio et religionis honestas vulnerari vel etiam impediri valeant quovis modo, sub pœna excommunicationis majoris, quam in contravenientes intendimus canonice fulminare. Ille[1] vero ad quem ostiorum claustri custodia pertinet, si propter illius negligentiam sive culpam transitus hujusmodi sustineatur indebite ut præfertur, pro singulis vicibus quibus hoc factum fuerit, singulis quartis feriis in pane, servisia et legumine dumtaxat jejunet, et si nec sic se correxerit debite in hac parte ab officio deponatur, ac alius magis providus loco suo celeriter subrogetur.

The cloister to be no thoroughfare for lay persons of either sex, on pain of the greater excommunication.

[V.] Item, quia ostia ecclesiæ atque claustri prioratus vestri prædicti non servantur nec serantur temporibus debitis nec modo debito ut deceret, sed custodia eorundem agitur et omittitur multotiens negligenter, adeo quod suspectæ personæ et aliæ inhonestæ per ecclesiam et claustrum hujusmodi incedunt frequenter in tenebris atque umbris, temporibus etiam suspectis et illicitis, indecenter, unde damna et scandala varia pluries provenerunt, et imposterum verisimiliter poterunt provenire, vobis ut supra mandamus firmiter injungentes quatinus dicta ostia de cætero claudi faciatis, et clausa per ministros idoneos custodiri, temporibus debitis prout decet, vobis inhibentes expresse ne ostia ecclesiæ vestræ prædictæ, illa videlicet quæ inter navem ipsius ecclesiæ et chorum ejusdem existunt, nec ostia claustri quæ ducunt ad extra et per quæ introitus sæcularium in ipsum claustrum patere poterit, de mane antequam prima incipiatur in choro, aut commestionis tempore, nec etiam de sero postquam conventus collationem inceperit, nisi in causa utili vel necessaria per Priorem vel Suppriorem ut convenit approbanda, aperiantur de cætero quovis modo; ad quæ fideliter exequenda sacristam qui pro tempore fuerit, ad cujus officium præmissa pertinent, sub pœna amotionis ab officio suo arctius oneramus, acrius per nos puniendum prout nobis videlitur expedire.

The doors of the Church and cloister to be closed at due times, to prevent the grave scandals which have arisen.

[VI.] Item, quia nonnulli concanonici et confratres Prioratus vestri minus sapiunt in lectura, non intelligentes quid legant, sed literas quasi prorsus ignorantes dum psallunt vel legunt accentum brevem pro longa ponunt pluries, et e contra et per nim[i]a [?][2] gradientes, sanum Scripturarum intellectum adulterantur multotiens et pervertunt, fitque ut dum

The ignorant brethren, who cannot read Holy Scripture aright, are to be better instructed.

[2] "innia," MS., as it seems.

Scripturas sacras non sapiant ad perpetrandum illicita proniores reddantur, vobis domino Priori in virtute obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus, cum legere et non intelligere sit negligere, novitiis et aliis minus sufficienter literatis idoneus de cætero deputetur magister qui ipsos in cantu et aliis primitivis scientiis instruat diligenter juxta regularia instituta, quatinus in eisdem perfectius eruditi, cæcitatis squamis et ignorantiæ nebulis depositis, quæ legant intelligant et agnoscant, et [ad] contemplandum mysteria Scripturarum efficiantur, ut convenit, promptiores.

The papal constitutions concerning the Augustinian orders are to be written out, and read twice yearly in the Chapter, and the novices are to learn the rule of the order by heart, as enjoined by Card. Ottobonus.

[VII.] Item, quia Constitutiones sive Decretales Romanorum Pontificum vestrum ordinem concernentes, illæ videlicet de quibus in Constitutionibus recolendæ memoriæ domini Ottoboni, quondam sedis apostolicæ in Anglia legati, fit mentio specialis, inter vos nullatenus recitantur, prout per Constitutiones ejusdem legati recitari mandantur,[1] unde dum Decretales ipsas et contenta in eis penitus ignoratis committitis multotiens quæ prohibentur expressius per easdem, in vestrarum periculum animarum, vobis firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus, ne ignorantiam aliquam prætendere poteritis in hac parte, Decretales prædictas, prout in præfatis Constitutionibus domini Ottoboni plenius recitantur, in quodam quaterno seu volumine absque moræ dispendio faciatis conscribi, ipsas bis singulis annis in vestro capitulo juxta formam Constitutionum prædictarum recitari clarius facientes, ad informationem rudium et perfectionem etiam provectorum, adjicientes præterea ut magistri novitiorum præsentium et etiam futurorum ipsos in regula Sancti Augustini diligenter instruant et informent, ipsam regulam eis vulgariter exponendo, quodque iidem novitii per frequentem recitationem ejusdem illam sciant quasi cordetenus, sicut in dictis Constitutionibus plenius continetur, per quam incedere poterunt via recta et errorum tenebras cautius evitare. Super executione vero præmissorum debite facienda dominum Priorem Prioratus vestri prædicti arctius oneramus, quatinus ea quæ præmisimus in hoc casu, sub pœna suspensionis ab ipsius officio per mensem, diligentius exequatur.

Clothes and shoes to be supplied when necessary, and no annual allowance in money to be made for them: old clothes to be given to the poor.

[VIII.] Item, quia canonici et confratres Prioratus vestri prædicti, ipsorum propriam voluntatem potius quam utilitatem communem sectantes, non vestes neccessarias cum opus fuerit sed certam et limitatam ac determinatam quantitatem pecuniæ velut annuum redditum pro vestibus hujusmodi percipiunt annuatim, contra regulam Sancti Augustini ac domini Ottoboni et aliorum sanctorum patrum canonica instituta, fitque ut, dum effrenis illa religiosorum cupiditas aliena specie colorata vetita concupiscat, sancta religio, solutis constantiæ frenis, in luxum labentem ad latitudinis tramites quæ ducunt ad mortem miserabiliter noscitur declinare, cui quidem morbo pestifero, ne putrescat et vermes generet corruptivas, mederi citius cupientes, nihil novi statuendo sed sanctorum patrum vestigiis inhærendo, volumus ac etiam ordinamus quod canonicis et confratribus memoratis præsentibus et futuris, de bonis et facultatibus communibus Prioratus vestri prædicti vestris usibus deputatis, vestes et calciamenta cum indiguerint necessaria juxta facultates prædictas, et nullo modo pecuniam pro eisdem, per eos qui super his ministrandi gerent officium de cætero ministrentur; vestes vero inveteratas et ineptas hujusmodi canonicorum camerario communi tradi volumus pauperibus erogandas, juxta regulam Sancti Augustini et alias canonicas sanctiones; contrarium vero facientes, si camerarius fuerit pœnam suspensionis ab officio ipsum incurrere volumus ipso facto, si vero alius canonicus de conventu existat præter alias pœnitentias regulares tam pecunia quam etiam indumentis novis careat illo anno.

The Canons and brethren are not to go outside the Priory without special leave, nor without a Canon as a companion.

[IX.] Item, quia nonnulli canonici et confratres Prioratus vestri prædicti, opportunitate captata, extra septa Prioratus absque societate honesta, evagandi causa, nulla super hoc obtenta licentia, se transferunt pluries indecenter, alii præterea provectiores certis officiis deputati ad maneria et loca alia officiis hujusmodi assignata equitant quando placet, ibidem manentes pro eorum libito voluntatis, nullo canonico ipsis in socium assignato, contra ordinis decentiam et religionis etiam honestatem constitutionesque sanctorum patrum editas in hac parte: Cum igitur religiosos extra eorum Prioratum sic vagari aut in eorum maneriis vel ecclesiis eis appropriatis soli (sic) manere expresse prohibeant canonica instituta, nos, præmissa fieri de cætero prohibentes, vobis firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus cum aliquis Prioratus vestri canonicus vel confrater super vel pro negotiis propriis vel etiam communibus exire contigerit, prius ad hoc a Priore vel Suppriore si præsentes in Prioratu fuerint, alioquin, ipsis absentibus, ab ipso qui pro tunc Conventui præesse contigerit, licentiam habeat specialem, cui assignari volumus unum canonicum in socium, ne suspicio sinistra vel scandalum oriatur, qui, associata eisdem juxta qualitatem negotii comitiva honesta, in eundo et etiam redeundo gravitate servata modestius semper incedant, et expletis negotiis ad Prioratum citius revertantur, quæ regularibus conveniunt institutis devotius impleturi; contrarium vero facientes, absque remissione seu acceptione qualibet personarum, regularem subeant disciplinam, super quo præsidentium conventus conscientias arctius oneramus, ipsosque nihilominus pro singulis vicibus quibus excesserint in præmissis singulis sextis feriis in pane et aqua jejunent; et si officiarius fuerit, ipso facto, si aliquod canonicum non obsistat, ab ipsius officio sit suspensus.

The Canons strictly forbidden to lie naked in bed.

[X.] Item, quia comperimus evidenter quod nonnulli canonici domus vestræ, secundum carnem potius quam secundum spiritum dissolute viventes, nulla causa rationabili subsistente, nudi jacent in lectis absque femoralibus et camisiis, contra eorum observantias regulares, vobis igitur firmiter injungendo mandamus quatinus vos omnes et singuli canonici Sancti Augustini regulam et in ea parte ordinis vestri canonica instituta de cætero efficaciter observetis; contrarium vero facientes singulis quartis feriis in pane servisia et legumine tantummodo sint contenti: si quis vero post trinam correctionem reus inventus fuerit in hac parte, pro singulis vicibus singulis extunc feriis sextis in pane et aqua hunc præcipimus jejunare; Priorem vero ac Suppriorem domus prædictæ sub pœna suspensionis ab officiis eorundem arctius onerantes quatinus super præmissis sæpius et diligenter inquirant, et quos culpabiles invenerint eos pœnis prædictis percellere non postponant.

Hunting strictly forbidden, and the keeping of hunting dogs, saving any right or custom of the Priory.

[XI.] Item, quia nonnullos canonicos et confratres Prioratus vestri prædicti publicos reperimus venatores, ac venationibus hujusmodi, spreto jugo regularis observantiæ, publice intendentes ac canes tenentes venaticos contra regularia instituta, unde dissolutiones quamplures, animarum pericula, corporumque ac rerum dispendia multotiens oriuntur, nos, volentes hoc frequens vitium a Prioratu prædicto radicitus extirpare, vobis omnibus et singulis tenore præsentium inhibemus, vobis nihilominus firmiter injungentes ne quisquam canonicorum Prioratus vestri prædicti publicis venationibus vel clamosis ex proposito intendere de cætero vel etiam interesse, canesve venaticos per se vel alios tenere, præsumat, publice vel occulte, intra Prioratum vel extra, contra formam capituli Ne in agro Dominico[1] et alias canonicas sanctiones. Per hoc autem Prioratus vestri prædicti nec juri vel consuetudini quod vel quam habere dinoscitur in ea parte non intendimus in aliquo derogare. Contrarium vero facientes præter disciplinas et pœnas alias canonicas pro singulis vicibus singulis quartis et sextis feriis in pane et servisia jejunando præcipimus castigari.

The officers of the Priory not to neglect attendance at the divine offices, under penalty of excommunication.

[XII]. Item, quia canonici Prioratus vestri prædicti quibus officia forinseca et intrinseca committuntur fingunt se, cum possent et deberent in choro divinis officiis interesse, in officiis hujusmodi sibi commissis multotiens occupari, quæ possent ante vel post horas hujusmodi commode fieri et etiam exerceri, propter quod cultus divinus minuitur et alii claustrales nimium onerantur, vobis in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ et sub pœna excommunicationis majoris firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus officiarii quicunque ecclesiæ vestræ prædictæ in choro ejusdem divinis officiis amodo personaliter intersint, nisi ex causa legitima officiorum suorum per præsidentem conventus qui pro tempore fuerit approbanda eos contigerit absentare, in quo casu de et super absentia sua legitimitateque causarum prætensarum in hac parte ipsorum præsidentium et officiariorum conscientias apud Altissimum districtius oneramus.

Two Canons to visit the manors twice every year.

[XIII.] Item, quia juxta Sapientis [?] doctrinam Ubi majus imminet periculum ibi cautius est agendum, volumus et etiam ordinamus quod duo canonici discreti et idonei de conventu Prioratus vestri prædicti per ipsum conventum vel majorem partem ejusdem annis singulis de cætero eligantur, qui bis in anno ad maneria tam Priori quam etiam pro sustentatione conventus hujus cæterisque officiariis assignata personaliter se transferant et accedant, statum maneriorum ipsorum tam in edificiis quam etiam in stauro vivo vel mortuo plenarie supervisuri, quique super his quæ invenerunt in iisdem conventui prædicto relationem fidelem in scriptis, ut convenit, facere teneantur, ut, si mors alicujus officiarii vel casus alius fortuitus evenerit, de statu officii hujusmodi cujuscunque conventum non lateat memoratum. Præmissa vero vobis præcipimus efficaciter observanda sub pœna nostro arbitrio limitanda, vobis, si in his negligentes fueritis vel remissi, acrius infligenda.

The full number of Canons to be kept up, or at least so many as can be competently supported.

[XIV.] Item, quia solitus et antiquus numerus canonicorum in Prioratu vestro prædicto, quod dolenter referimus, adeo jam decrevit ac etiam minuitur in præsenti, quod ubi xiiij canonici vel circiter in habitu et observantiis regularibus in dicto Prioratu solebant Altissimo devotius famulari, quibus de bonis et possessionibus ipsius Prioratus vestri communibus quæ possidetis in victu et vestitu juxta decentiam ordinis regularis honorifice ac debite fuerat ministratum, modo vero undecim canonici dumtaxat existunt et serviunt in eodem, quo fit ut dum Regis regum cultum attenuet cohabitantium paucitas, contra multiformis nequitiæ hostem minuatur exercitus bellatorum; cum igitur juxta præfati domini Ottoboni Constitutiones[1] aliorumque sanctorum patrum canonica instituta canonicorum antiquus numerus sit servandus, ac, juxta Sapientis doctrinam In multitude populi sit dignitas regis, et in paucitate plebis ignominia principis accendatur,[2] vobis in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ, ac sub pœna majoris excommunicationis firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus cum omni diligentia et celeritate debitis de viris idoneis religioni dispositis et honestis vobis absque moræ dispendio providere curetis, ipsos in vestrum ordinem regularem in suppletionem majoris numeri requisiti, seu saltim illius numeri canonicorum ad quorum sustentationem congruam, aliis oneribus vobis incumbentibus debite supportatis, vestræ jam habitæ suppetunt facultates, super quibus vestrum et cujuslibet vestrum conscientiam arctius oneramus, celerius admittentes, ad augmentum cultus divini et perfectionem majorem ordinis regularis, pro fundatoribus et benefactoribus vestris devotius ut convenit intercessuros.

The Prior strictly charged no longer to neglect enquiry into private ownership of property on the part of the Canons twice in the year.

[XV.] Item, quia comperimus evidenter quod vos, domine Prior, cui ex debito vestri officii hoc incumbit, de proprietariis canonicis Prioratus vestri prædicti, juxta Constitutiones domini legati editas in hac parte,[3] inquisitionem debitam hactenus non fecistis, ministerium vobis creditum in ea parte negligentius omittendo, quo fit ut ille pestifer hostis antiquus pastoris considerans continuam desidiam oves miseras et errantes, ipsius hostis nequissimi fraude deceptas, in sitim avaritiæ prolabentes laqueo proprietatis seducit, contra patrum canonica instituta, in suarum grave periculum animarum, vos igitur requirimus et monemus, vobisque in virtute obedentiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus dicti legati Constitutionibus, ut convenit, imitantes, super proprietariis hujusmodi saltim bis in anno inquisitionem faciatis de cætero diligentem, ipsos si quos inveneritis animadversione condigna juxta regularia instituta canonice punientes. Si vero id adimplere neglexeritis, administratione vestra ipso facto noveritis vos privatum, donec præmissa fueritis diligenter executi, prout in Constitutionibus domini Ottoboni legati prædicti plenius continetur.

[1] cap. xlix. [2] Prov. xiv, 28: "accendatur" is not in the Vulgate. [3] cap. xl.

Annual accounts to be rendered by the Prior and officers.

[XVI.] Item, cum secundum Constitutiones dicti legati[1] et aliorum sanctorum patrum canonica instituta abbates, et priores proprios abbates non habentes, necnon offiiciarii quicunque, teneantur bis saltim in singulis annis, præsente toto conventu vel aliquibus ex senioribus ad hoc a capitulo deputatis, de statu Prioratus et de administratione sua plenariam reddere rationem, quod tamen in Prioratu vestro prædicto invenimus hactenus non servatum, unde plura sequuntur incommoda et vestræ utilitati communi plurimum derogatur, vobis in virtute obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus præfati domini legati, domini videlicet Ottoboni,[2] necnon bonæ memoriæ domini Stephani [Langton] quondam archiepiscopi Cantuariensis,[3] Constitutiones editas in hac parte, faciatis inter vos de cætero firmiter observari, sub pœna suspensionis officiariorum ipsorum ab eorum hujusmodi officiis dictique Prioris ab administratione sua, quam si præmissa neglexerint observare ipso facto donec id perfecerint se noverint incurrisse, prout in dictis Constitutionibus dicti Ottoboni plenius continetur.

Dilapidated buildings of the Priory and manors to be forthwith repaired.

[XVII.] Item, quia in Prioratu vestro prædicto et ecclesia ejusdem ac in nonnullis domibus, edificiis, muris et clausuris ecclesiæ vestræ prælibatæ, necnon maneriorum ipsius Prioratus certis diversis officiis deputatorum, quas et quæ prædecessorum et prædecessorum vestrorum industria sumptuose construxerat, quamplures enormes et notabiles sunt defectus reparatione necessaria indigentes, unde statum ipsius Prioratus ac maneriorum prædictorum deformitas occupat et multa incommoda insequuntur, vobis igitur in virtute obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus defectus hujusmodi pro vestra utilitate communi absque dilationis incommodo quam citius poteritis juxta vires reparari debite faciatis; alioquin Priorem cæterosque officiarios qui in præmissis negligentes fuerint vel remissi, nisi infra sex menses post notificationem præsentium sibi factam ad debitam reparationem defectuum hujusmodi se præparaverint cum effectu, ipso facto ab officiis suis hujusmodi sint suspensi.

No liveries, corrodies, or pensions to be hereafter sold or granted without the Bishop's consent.

[XVIII]. Item, quia per venditiones et concessiones liberationum et corrodiorum hactenus per vos factas reperimus dictum Prioratum multipliciter fore gravatum, adeo quod ea quæ ad divini cultus augmentum, sustentationem pauperum et infirmorum, pia devotio fidelium erogavit, mercenariorum cœca cupiditas jam absorbet, fitque ut dum bona ejusdem Prioratus in alios usus quam debitos, ne dixerimus in prophanos, nepharie convertantur, Altissimo famulantium in eadem numerus minuitur, pauperes et infirmi suis portionibus, ac ipsa ecclesia divinis obsequiis, nequiter defraudantur, contra intentionem piissimam fundatorum, in vestrarum periculum animarum, indempnitati igitur ipsius ecclesiæ vestræ in hac parte debite providere, dictum quoque tam frequens incommodum ab eadem radicitus extirpare, volentes, bonæ memoriæ domini Ottoboni legati prædicti[4] aliorumque sanctorum patrum vestigiis inhærentes, vobis tenore præsentium districtius inhibemus, etiam sub pœna excommunicationis majoris, ne corrodia, liberationes, aut pensiones personis aliquibus imperpetuum vel ad tempus vendatis de cætero vel aliqualiter concedatis absque nostro consensu et licentia speciali, præsertim cum venditiones hujusmodi, quæ species alienationis existunt, Prioratus vestri prædicti detrimentum procurent et enormem etiam generent læsionem. Si quis vero contra hanc nostram inhibitionem aliquid attemptare præsumpserit, nisi id quod sic præsumpserit revocaverit, ab officio sit suspensus, prout in Constitutionibus domini Ottoboni clarius continetur.

Chantries of founders and benefactors to be duly served, and their endowments no longer to be perverted.

[XIX.] Item, quia quædam certæ perpetuæ cantariæ pro fundatoribus et aliis benefactoribus vestris tam in genere quam in specie antiquitus constitutæ per diversos presbyteros in Prioratu vestro prædicto debite celebrandæ, pro quibus plura donaria recepistis, a multis retroactis temporibus ac etiam de præsenti, ut asseritur, sunt subtractæ contra piam intentionem ac ordinationem etiam fundatorum, in vestrarum grave periculum animarum, vobis igitur in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ ac sub majoris excommunicationis sententiæ pœna firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus cantarias prædictas juxta formam institutionum et ordinationum earum faciatis de cætero debite celebrari ac eisdem congrue deserviri, si redditus et proventus ad hujusmodi cantarias antiquitus assignati ad hoc sufficiant his diebus; alioquin, prout redditus et proventus earum, aliis oneribus eisdem incumbentibus debite supportatis, sufficiunt de præsenti, dolo et fraude cessantibus quibuscunque, super quo vestram conscientiam arctius oneramus, amodo deserviri debite faciatis.

Alms to be duly distributed to the poor, according to the will of founders and benefactors, and the fragments left from meals.

[XX.] Item, vobis omnibus et singulis in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ ac sub majoris excommunicationis sententiæ pœna firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus elemosinas in Prioratu vestro prædicto antiquitus fieri consuetas et eas ad quas tenemini ex ordinatione antiqua pro animabus fundatorum et aliorum benefactorum vestrorum juxta facultates vestras, super quibus vestras conscientias arctius oneramus, prout divinam effugere volueritis ultionem, distribui de cætero faciatis: præcipientes præterea quod fragmenta seu reliquiæ tam de aula Prioris quam etiam de refectorio provenientia absque diminutione qualibet per elemosinarium vel ipsius locumtenentem integre colligantur pauperibus fideliter eroganda; alioquin, si elemosinarius hujusmodi remissus vel negligens fuerit in præmissis pœnam suspensionis ab officio se noverit incursurum.

Sick and infirm brethren to be properly ministered to.

[XXI.] Item, quia debilibus et infirmis humanitatis præberi subsidium jubet caritas et pietas interpellat,[1] vobis domino Priori, cæteris[que] obedientiariis Prioratus vestri prædicti quorum interest in hac parte, in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus confratribus vestris debilibus et infirmis, ipsorum infirmitate durante, in esculentis et poculentis eorum infirmitatibus congruentibus, necnon in medicinis et aliis, juxta infirmitatis hujusmodi qualitatem et Prioratus facultates de bonis vestris communibus et sicut antiquitus fieri consueverat de cætero faciatis debite procurari, sub pœna suspensionis ab officiis vestris si circa præmissa negligentes fueritis vel remissi ipso facto, quousque id quod negligenter omissum fuerit perfeceritis, incurrenda, prout in Constitutionibus domini Ottoboni plenius continetur:[1] statuentes præterea quod cameræ in infirmaria vestra cum opus fuerit infirmis canonicis sint communes, ne, quod absit, aliquis sibi retineat in eisdem vel vendicet proprietatem, contra Sancti Augustini regulam et constitutiones sanctorum patrum editas in hac parte.

Offenders to be duly corrected without respect of persons; negligence herein to be visited by suspension of officers and special penance for the Prior.

[XXII.] Item, cum negligentia sive remissio in personis præsidentium sit plurimum detestanda, facilitas quoque veniæ incentivum præbeat delinquendi, vobis, domino Priori, Suppriori, aliisque conventus prædicti præsidentibus quibuscunque præsentibus et futuris, in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus, cum correctiones in personis ipsius conventus immineant faciendæ, ipsas, prout ad vos pertinet, absque acceptione qualibet personarum juxta quantitatem delictorum et personarum qualitatem vestrasque observantias regulares, cum maturitate debita et discretione prævia, facere studeatis; alioquin, vos, Suppriorem cæterosque præsidentes prædictos, si negligentes vel remissi aut culpabiles fueritis in præmissis, canonica nostra monitione præmissa, pœnam suspensionis ab officiis vestris extunc incurrere volumus ipso facto, donec hujusmodi negligentiam, remissionem, culpam vel desidiam, a vobis excusseritis in hac parte, pœnitentia præfato domino Priori in hoc casu ut convenit infligenda nobis specialiter reservata.

Pittances and other allowances on anniversary days to be duly distributed, under penalty of double payment.

[XXIII.] Item, cum consuetudines laudabiles Prioratus cujuscumque ordinationesque ac statuta quæ usus longævi temporis approbavit merito sint servandæ, vobis, domino Priori ac singulis officiariis Prioratus vestri prædicti præsentibus et futuris, in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ et sub pœnis infrascriptis firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus pitancias et alias distributiones quascunque, in quibuscunque rebus consistant et quocunque nomine censeantur, in obitibus, anniversariis, festivitatibus aut aliis diebus, conventui, aut ab uno officio alii officio, ex ordinatione antiqua debitas et consuetas, si canonicum aliquod non obsistat, amodo faciatas persolvi, sub pœna portionis duplæ, cujus partem unam conventui prædicto, alteram vero partem certis piis usibus nostro arbitrio limitandis debite persolvendam specialiter reservamus.

No important business, as wood sales, and letting to farm of manors and churches, to be transacted without consent of the majority.

[XXIV.] Item, cum venditiones boscorum, firmæ maneriorum vel etiam ecclesiarum, aut alia domus vestræ ardua negotia, immincant faciendæ, illa (sic) sine tractatu ac deliberatione provida cum conventu prædicto ac eorum consensu expresso vel majoris et sanioris partis ejusdem, de cætero fieri prohibemus; aliter autem hujusmodi negotia ardua facta nullius existant firmitatis; et nihilominus, Priorem aliosque officiarios quoscumque qui contra præsentem prohibitionem nostram quicquam attemptaverint in præmissis pœnam suspensionis ab officiis

eorundem ipso facto se noverint incursuros, cum ex hujusmodi factis privatis ecclesiis dispendia multotiens provenerunt, illa quoque quæ omnes tangunt ab omnibus merito debeant approbari.

The common seal to be kept under five keys.

[XXV.] Item, volumus ac etiam ordinamus quod sigillum vestrum commune sub quinque clavibus ad minus de cætero custodiatur, quarum unam penes Priorem, secundam penes Suppriorem, tertiam penes Præcentorem, et reliquas duas claves penes confratres alios per conventum ad hoc nominandos, decrevimus remanere, per eos fideliter custodiendas ; inhibentes præterea sub pœna excommunicationis ne quicquam cum dicto sigillo communi amodo sigilletur nisi litera hujusmodi sigillanda primitus legatur, inspiciatur, ac etiam intelligatur, a majore et saniore parte totius conventus, et ad ipsam sigillandum communis vester præbeatur consensus, cum ex facto hujusmodi plura possent dispendia verisimiliter provenire. Ad hæc, vobis omnibus et singulis tenore præsentium inhibemus ne compatres alicujus pueri de cætero fieri præsumatis nostra super hoc licentia non obtenta, cum ex hujusmodi cognationibus religiosis domibus dispendia sæpius provenire [1] noscuntur ; contrarium vero facientes præter disciplinas alias regulares singulis sextis feriis per mensem proxime tunc sequentem in pane et aqua jejunando præcipimus castigari.

No one to be a godfather without the Bishop's leave.

The statutable boots to be worn, and not coloured shoes or leggings ; offenders to be punished, if need be, by imprisonment.

[XXVI.] Item, quia nonnulli canonici domus vestræ prædictæ, fræno objecto observantiæ regularis, caligis de burneto et sotularibus bassis in ocrearum loco ad modum sotularium uti publice non verentur, contra consuetudinem antiquam laudabilem ordinis supradicti, in perniciosum exemplum et scandalum plurimorum, Nos igitur, honestatem dicti ordinis observare volentes, vobis, domino Priori, in virtute sanctæ obedientiæ firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinos quoscumque vestros canonicos et confratres ad utendum de cætero ocreis seu botis secundum antiquas vestri ordinis observantias regulares per quascumque censuras ecclesiasticas, et, si opus fuerit, per incarcerationis pœnam, canonice compellatis, sub pœna suspensionis ab officio vestro prædicto.

Rules for dinner in the refectory, for meals with guests, and entertainment by the Prior.

[XXVII.] Item, quia tres vel duæ partes conventus domus vestræ non comedunt cotidie in refectorio, prout constitutiones sanctorum patrum sanxerunt provide in hac parte, vobis dicti Prioratus conventui firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus tres vel saltem duæ partes vestrum cotidie in refectorio hora prandii de cætero comedant et remaneant debite, sicut decet vobis, arctius injungentes quod nullus vestrum in mansiunculis aut locis aliis privatis etiam cum hospitibus suis regularibus vel secularibus vel confratribus suis comedat, hostilaria cum hospitibus, refectorio in communi misericordia, causa recreationis, et aula Prioris dumtaxat exceptis. Hanc tamen Prior apponat providentem diligentiam ut sine personarum acceptione nunc hos nunc illos ad refectionem convocet quos magis noverit indigere. Super executione vero debita præmissorum Priorem et alios conventui præsidentes sub pœna suspensionis ab eorum officiis arctius oneramus.

[1] "invenire," MS.

The Prior to change his chaplain yearly, for due teaching of the younger Canons, and his own security in case of slander.

[XXVIII.] Item, cum secundum sanctorum patrum constitutiones juniores canonici a suis prælatis vivendi normam habeant[1] assumere, ac iidem prælati super sua conversatione testium copiam debeant obtinere, vobis, domino Priori, in virtute obedientiæ districte præcipiendo mandamus, quatinus capellanum vestrum canonicum singulis de cætero mutetis annis, juxta constitutiones sanctorum patrum editas in hac parte, ut sic qui vobiscum fuerint in officio prædicto per doctrinæ laudabilis exercitium plus valeant in religione proficere, ac eos innocentiæ testes si vobis, quod absit, crimen aliquod seu scandalum per aliquorum invidiam imponatur prompte poteritis invocare.

All luxury in dress forbidden.

[XXIX.] Item, cum communis exquisitus ornatus præsertim in religiosis personis a jure sit penitus interdictus, vobis tenore præsentium inhibemus ne quivis vestrum de cætero in suis vestibus furruris preciosis aut manicis nodulatis, zonisve sericis auri vel argenti ornatum habentibus, utatur de cætero quovismodo, cum abusus hujusmodi ad pompam et ostentationem ac scandalum ordinis manifeste tendere dinoscatur.

Officers to be duly elected for each office singly.

[XXX.] Item, quia singula officia sunt singulis committenda personis, vobis in virtute obedientiæ et sub excommunicationis sententiæ pœna firmiter injungendo mandamus ut officia singula vestri Prioratus quæ per canonicos officiarios gubernari solebant, per officiarios hujusmodi, per vos communiter vel divisim juxta Prioratus prædicti morem solitum eligendos, quibus ipsa officia ut olim committi volumus exercenda, singulariter de cætero gubernentur.

No one without cure of souls to administer sacraments without leave.

[XXXI.] Item, cum plus timeri soleat id quod specialiter injungitur quam quod generaliter imperat, vobis omnibus et singulis inhibemus ne aliquis vestrum ad curam animarum non admissus clericis aut laicis sacramentum unctionis extremæ vel euchauristiæ (sic) ministrare matrimoniave solemnizare, non habita super his parochialis presbyteri licentia, quomodolibet præsumatis, sub pœna excommunicationis majoris sententiæ in hac parte a canone fulminata.

Sacred vestments and vessels to be kept clean.

[XXXII.] Item, quia comperimus in nostris visitationibus supradictis vasa et pallas altaris, necnon et vestimenta sacra ecclesiæ vestræ atque corporalia, tam immunda relinqui quod interdum aliquibus sunt horrori, ut igitur honor debitus divinis impendatur, vobis firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus vasa, corporalia, pallas, et vestimenta prædicta ac cætera ecclesiæ ornamenta munda nitida et honesta de cætero conserventur, hoc quoque insuper injungentes ut in ecclesia vestra celebrantibus vinum bonum purum et incorruptum ad sacramentum altaris conficiendum per eum qui super hoc gerit officium, et non corruptum et acetosum, prout fieri consuevit, imposterum ministretur; nimis enim videt absurdum in sacris sordes negligere quæ dedecerent in prophanis.

Sacramental wine to be pure and good, not sour.

Relics and sacred vessels, etc., not to be pawned.

[XXXIII.] Item, licet sanctorum reliquias, vasa aut vestimenta sacra, seu libros ecclesiæ, in vadum dari aut pignori obligari canonica prohibeant instituta, a vobis tamen in dictis visitationibus comperimus

[1] Sic; qu. debeant?

contrarium esse factum ; vobis igitur, domino Priori, tenore præsentium firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus, ab hujusmodi impignorationibus extra casus a jure permissos vos de cætero penitus abstinentes, hujusmodi pignori obligata curetis recolligere, et ea ecclesiæ vestræ restituere absque moræ dispendio, sicut decet ; statuentes præterea ut omnes cartæ ac munimenta quæcumque statum, bona, et possessiones domus vestræ qualitercunque contingentes sub tribus seruris et clavibus remaneant futuris temporibus fideliter conservandæ.

Charters to be safely kept.

[XXXIV.] Item, cum Religiosi de bono in melius continuo debeant proficisci, ac ex Sacræ Scripturæ lectione, et inspectione qualiter id faciant, plenius instrui valeant, vobis firmiter injungendo mandamus, ut, completis his quæ ad vestri ordinis et regularis disciplinæ observantiam pertinent atque spectant, in claustro sedentes Scripturæ Sacræ lectioni sanctæque contemplationi devotius insistatis, sicque secundum regulæ vestræ exigentiam taliter codices inspiciendos requiratis ut in eis quid fugiendum, quid subsequendum, ac cujusmodi præmium inde consequendum fuerit, agnoscere valeatis.

Diligent private reading of Holy Scripture to be kept up.

[XXXV.] Item, vobis, domino Priori, injungimus, quod cum parentes vel consanguinei alicujus confratris vestri ad eum accesserint causa visitandi eundem, liberaliter secundum status sui exigentiam per vos vel illum qui super hoc ministrandi gerit officium infra Prioratum honeste et debite procurentur, sed videant fratres ne nimis sint in talibus Prioratui onerosi.

Relatives visiting monks to be liberally entertained.

[XXXVI.] Item, quia parum est jura condere nisi executioni debitæ demandentur, ea quoque solent labili memoriæ eo tenacius commendari quo veraciter audientium auribus fuerint sæpius inculcata, et ne vestrum quispiam ignorantiam prætendere valeat præmissorum, vobis firmiter injungendo mandamus, quatinus has nostras injunctiones et decreta pariter supradicta in aliquo volumine competenti absque moræ dispendio conscribi plenius faciatis, eaque omnia et singula bis annis singulis de cætero coram toto conventu plenius recitari. Vos nihilominus omnes et singulos monemus, primo secundo et tertio peremptorie, vobis insuper in virtute obedientiæ arctius injungentes, quatinus ipsas injunctiones nostras et decreta prædicta omnia et singula, prout ad vos et vestrum quemlibet pertinent et singulariter vos concernunt, teneatis de cætero ac etiam observetis, sub pœnis et censuris ecclesiasticis supradictis et aliis pœnis canonicis in contravenientes quoscunque, prout contumacia delinquentium exegerit, per nos imposterum canonice infligendis. Potestatem autem præmissa corrigendi, mutandi in toto vel in parte, interpretandi, declarandi, et eisdem addendi et etiam detrahendi, ac pœnas adjiciendi, suspendendi, necnon super compertis aliis in visitatione nostra prædicta procedendi, criminaque et defectus ac excessus in ipsa comperta et delata corrigendi ac canonice puniendi, et super ipsis novas injunctiones insuper faciendi, sicut et prout opus fuerit et nobis videbitur expedire, nobis etiam specialiter reservamus.

These Injunctions to be written out, and read before the whole Convent twice in the year.

In quorum omnium testimonium sigillum nostrum fecimus his apponi.

This paper (one folio leaf) is very roughly written, with many corrections, and with some notes struck out, and is evidently a draft copy of the statement of the condition of the Priory revenues made for Bishop Waynflete in 1462, on his issuing a sequestration in that year to provide for the repair of the ruinous buildings of the Priory. It is printed (on the whole, correctly) in White's Selborne, 1789, pp. 466–8.

1463–4. Seven folio leaves of paper, much injured by damp, in part torn and in part illegible, forming a portion of a book of accounts of the Priory, of expenditure and receipts, extending from 1 Jan., 2 Edw. IV [1463], to 1 Jan., 3 Edw. IV, and containing also part of the 4th year [1464]. It exhibits all the rents and miscellaneous receipts, with the names of the tenants. Of expenditure the principal entries are :—

1. Repairs of the Priory (inter alia, 4,000 tiles at 4*s.* per thousand, for the roof of the "frayter," the stables, and the "deyhouse," with the chancel of East Worldam), candles, bread and wine for the Priory church, glazing the windows of the chancel of the parish church.

2. Repairs of the chapel of B. V. Mary at Waddene (which had been burnt, an entry among the receipts recording that nothing had been received there for candles "eo quod post cremacionem ejusdem capelle nullum staurum cere"), and expenses for the "domus peregrinorum ibidem." The following are some of the entries :—

"Pro tectura unius domus peregrinorum cum stramine, iiij$^{d.}$

Pro cariagio ymaginis beatæ Mariæ de Waddene, videlicet de Wynton usque ad capellam prædictam de Waddene ex eo . . . . . (?), xix$^{d.}$

Et in vadiis Johannis Gyles operantis circa fenestram majorem capellæ prædictæ . . . . " (torn and illegible).

Sol. Ricardo Dene operanti circa facturam domus peregrinorum ibidem per viij dies, cap[ienti] per diem iiij$^{d.}$ ij$^{s.}$ viij$^{d.}$"

For glazing the windows of the chapel.

3. Manor of Beche.

4. Mill of Selborne.

5. Repairs of the chapel of the Holy Trinity at Basynge (nails, wood, carriage, etc.). Two mutilated entries appear to refer to some extra payments for wages "propter magnam altitudinem domus capellæ." There are payments for repairing the walls, roof, and windows of the chancel.

6. Miscellaneous expenses.

7. Payments to the Prior Peter (£10 per an.), to dom. Thomas Assheford, canon and sub-prior, and to dom. William Wynsore, canon and seneschal of the hospice of the Priory, as for four canons and four servants.

8. Customary annual payments : to the Bishop of Winchester for Schete, xiij$^{s.}$ iiij$^{d.}$; to the Pope, vij$^{s.}$; to the archdeacon of Winchester for procurations and synodals, xxij$^{s.}$ vj$^{d.}$; to the Bishop's apparitor iij$^{s.}$ iiij$^{d.}$; to the sub-apparitor, viij$^{d.}$; to the sub-apparitor of the archdeacon, xvj$^{d.}$, to John Tycheborne and his heirs for a chantry there, iiij$^{li.}$; to the Prior of New Place, xvj$^{d.}$; to the lord of the manor of Ludschette, ij$^{s.}$; to the lord of Burgeham for the manor of Sholand, vj$^{d.}$; to the lord of Alton "pro secta curiæ relaxanda pro ten. in Okangre," x$^{s.}$, and for the same for the manor of Beche, ij$^{s.}$; to the bailiffs of the city of Winchester "pro curia relaxanda de Bowremete," ij$^{s.}$

9. Casual external payments, such as these: "In denariis datis domino Willelmo Wynsore canonico pro quadam sequestratione in curia Cantuar. versus dominum priorem ad sectam Johannis Hardman de London, grosere, pro debitis dicti prioris prosecuta, xx$^{d.}$ In denariis eidem datis pro contentatione debiti prædicti Johanuis Hardman solutis, xij$^{d.}$ In dono domino Willelmo Wynsore facto pro expensis abbatis de Costantynnobylle apud prioratum prædictum existentis xxvij^{o} die Julii dicto anno quarto, xj$^{s.}$ (?). (To the same) pro expensis capellani domini cancellarii Angliæ apud prioratum existentis quarto die Augusti dicto anno quarto, x$^{d.}$ In dono pro pauperibus die Cœnæ, xij$^{d.}$" (For amercements of the Prior in the preceding year in the court of the sheriff of Southampton, in a suit of John Andrewe against him for debt, xlij$^{s.}$ Further fines in this year in the sheriff's court and "coram Rege," in the same suit, with expenses thereupon.) "Sol. cuidam capellano ministranti in capella de Netley hoc anno virtute cujusdam sequestrationis domini nostri Wynton . . . . . nil, quia in anno futuro"; etc.

10. Repairing the chancel of Blakemere church and the windows of the chancels of Okeanger, Estworlam, and Basynge.

11. Payments of debts: the total only xxxviij$^{s.}$ xj$^{d.}$

12. Repairs at the manor of Roode.

Amongst the receipts is a rent of 20*s.* per an. for the "tyle ovyn" at the Priory, leased to John Prat for three years, and 51*s.* 8*d.* from the sale of corn and hay of the rectory of Selborne.—[394.]

1469, 24 March, 9 Edw. IV; at Herteley. Lease from Richard Lussher to John Morton the Prior and the Convent of Selbourne of five fields of arable land separately enclosed called Candeverefeldes, lying together within the demesne of Herteley Maudite in the county of Southampton, between the land of the lord of Herteley and that of the lord of Westwordelam; and one croft of arable land called Siz acres in the aforesaid demesne, near the way leading from the village of Herteley to the wood of Herteley, between the said way and the land of the tenants of Herteley on one side and the land called Brianes on another; and also one croft of arable land called Pilcroft, on the right side of the way leading from the village of Herteley to the Priory of Selbourne, between the said way and the land of the tenants of Herteley on one side and the land of the tenants of Nortone on the other; and one meadow called Wetemede near Herteleywode; all which the said lessor had by feoffment of Joan, daughter and heir of Stephen Dier, late of Aultone; to hold for the term of ninety-nine years, paying an annual quit-rent of one penny. Witn.: William, Bishop of Winchester, Humfrey Bourgchier, knt., Thomas Selenger, esq., Rob. Wyntreshulle, esq., Thos. Basset, esq., Will. Utteworth, Henry Stoughtone.—[113.]

Small dark seal; the Prince of Wales' feathers.

1470, 16 Jan., 9 Edw. IV; at Herteley. Release from Richard Lussher to John Morton the Prior and the Convent of Selborne of all his right in the land conveyed in the preceding deed No. 113, of 24 March, 1469. Witnesses and seal the same.—[114.]

1474, 3 Jan., 13 Edw. IV; in the chapter house at Selborne. Copy, on paper (nearly contemporary), of a grant from Peter the Prior and the Convent of B. Mary of Selborne to John Wheteham of an annual rent of 20*s.* from their manor of Beche in the parish of Altone.—[17.]

1477, 4 Aug., 17 Edw. IV; at Altone. Warrant from Henry Bourgchier, Earl of Essex, Justice itinerant of the King's forests on this side the Trent, to the keeper of the forest of Wolmere and Alisholt, to the same purport as the warrants of the Duke of Gloucester in 1425 and Duke of York in 1452, Nos. 112 and 115 supra, for the exemption of the Priory of Selborne.—[205*a*.]

Bad impression of seal, black, very indistinct.

1477, 14 Nov., 17 Edw. IV. Release from Henry Percy, late of the city of Winchester, to Peter Bernes, Prior of Selburne, of all actions against him.—[396.]

Small seal.

1478, 20 March, at Brommore: 22 March, at Tortyntone. Citation from the Priors of Brommore and Tortyngtone, of the dioceses of Winchester and Chichester, appointed Visitors of the houses of the order of St. Augustine in Winchester, Chichester, and Sarum, by a general Chapter held at Leycester, to the Prior of Selborne to attend, with all the brethren and canons, their visitation to be held at Selborne on 21 April.—[41.]

Two red seals: (1) large, oval, fine impression; St. Michael treading on the dragon: "S' comune ecc̄e conventualis S . . . . chaelis de Brommore." (2) small, round; two figures (one a female, the other with a sword), under canopies; inscription (two words) illegible.

1478, 1 April. Acknowledgment by Reginald, Prior of Monemuth, the Pope's sub-collector in England, of the receipt of 7*s.* from the Prior of Selburne for procurations.—[395(ii)]

Small red seal; inscription broken; the cross-keys: "Sigillū . . . . " (?)

1479, 12 Jan., 18 Edw. IV. Affidavit, in English, by John Scherpe, Prior of Selborne, and late Subprior of the worshipful monastery of Brewtone, Somerset, that whereas one John Danys (Davys ?) of Bristowe has taken an action of trespass against one Thomas Wykam for wrongfully taking out of his house at Bristowe a deed by which the Prior and Convent of Brewtone (the said John Scherpe being then Supprior) granted to the said John Danys certain lands, tenements, woods, etc., in demise and in reversion, in Brewtone, no such deed was ever made, granted or sealed by the said Convent of Brewtone or any of them. —[387.]

1484, 2 Sept.; at Farnham Castle. Commission by Bishop Waynflete to Richard, Prior of New Place, master Richard Hayward, LL.D., ("in legibus professori"), and Walter Hodgies, LL.B., to annex the Priory of Selebourne, in the Bishop's patronage, to Magdalen College. —[103.]

Good impression of the episcopal seal, but broken; oval, red; tabernacle-work, with three saints under canopies; at foot, the bust of the Bishop with clasped hands and his coat of arms, fusilly, ermine and sable, on a chief three lilies; on dexter side, a coat of arms, quarterly, 1st and 4th three fleurs-de-lis, 2nd and 3rd three lions passant; on sinister side, a shield with mitre and cross-keys: "Sigillum Willelmi Dei . . . . Wintoniensis . . . ."

Process for Annexation of the Priory to Magdalen College.

Universis sanctæ matris Ecclesiæ filiis ad quos præsentes litteræ sive præsens publicum instrumentum pervenerint sive pervenerit, et quos infrascripta tangunt seu tangere poterunt quomodolibet in futurum, Ricardus Dei gratia Prior ecclesiæ conventualis de Novo Loco, Winton dioc., reverendi in Christo patris et domini domini Willelmi eadem gratia Wintoniensis Episcopi ad infrascripta una cum aliis cum illa clausula conjunctim et divisim Commissarius sufficienter et legittime deputatus, salutem in Domino et fidem indubiam præsentibus adhibere.

[1] In the following year the Process was formally repeated, in consequence (as it seems) of the Priory being then actually vacant by the cession of the Prior, and the record of this Process exists in a similar book numbered Appropr. 3, to which the same seals are attached. This enquiry was held before the Prior of New Place in the parish church of St. George at Esher; it commenced on 3 August, 1485, and the sentence was pronounced in the same place on 8 August. The documents are in substance the same, mutatis mutandis. Some verbal differences, with occasional greater variations, are given in the notes. There is also (No. 25) a copy of the first Process in a third book, which is not quite perfect at the end. An abstract of the second Process is given in White's Selborne.

Ad universitatis vestra notitiam deducimus et deduci volumus per præsentes quod coram nobis Commissario prædicto in ecclesia parochiali Sancti Andreæ apostoli de Farnham dictæ dioceseos, sexto die mensis Septembris anno Domini millesimo quadringentesimo octuagesimo quarto, indictione secunda, pontificatus sanctissimi in Christo patris et domini nostri domini Innocentii divina providentia Papæ octavi anno primo, judicialiter sedente, comparuit venerabilis vir magister Jacobus Preston, in sacra theologia professor, infrascriptus, et exhibuit litteras commissionis dicti reverendi in Christo patris et domini domini Willelmi gratia supradicta Wintoniensis episcopi, ejusdem loci diocesani, quas quidem litteras prædictas per magistrum Thomam Somercotes notarium publicum infra nominatum publice legi fecimus, tenorem subsequentem in se continentes :—

Commission from Bishop Wayneflete.

"Willelmus permissione divina Wintoniensis episcopus dilecto nobis in Christo Ricardo, Priori ecclesiæ conventualis de Novo Loco, ordinis Sancti Augustini, nostræ dioceseos, et magistro Ricardo Hayward, in legibus professori, ac Waltero Hodgies, in utroque jure bacallario, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Ex parte venerabilium virorum Præsidentis et Scholarium collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. fundati nobis humiliter extitit supplicatum, quod fructus redditus et proventus prædicto Collegio pertinentes, ad sustentationem Præsidentis et Scholarium ejusdem modernorum et futurorum, ipsiusque Collegii conservationem, et supportationem onerum incumbentium, eidem non sufficiunt, quatinus prioratum de Selebourne, nostrorum patronatus et dioceseos, cum suis possessionibus, juribus, et pertinentiis universis, eis et eorum Collegio prædicto canonice unire, annectere et appropriare dignaremur. Et quia nos aliis arduis negotiis sumus impediti quominus prædictæ unionis, annexionis, seu appropriationis, expeditionem et examinationem superintendere valeamus, ad cognoscendum igitur de et super præmissis et aliis in hac parte necessariis et requisitis, ac procedendum, in quocunque loco honesto dictæ nostræ dioceseos non exempto, in negotio unionis, annexionis, sive appropriationis, prædicti prioratus de Selebourne, cum suis possessionibus, juribus, et pertinentiis universis, ex causis præmissis, præfatis Præsidenti et Scolaribus suisque successoribus ac eorum Collegio prædicto uniendi, annectendi, appropriandi et incorporandi, ac in ipsorum proprios usus imperpetuum possideri concedendi, ita quod, Priore dicti prioratus de Selebourne moderno cedente, decedente, aut eodem prioratu qualitercunque vacante, liceat ex tunc Præsidenti et Scolaribus prædictis et eorum successoribus per se aut per procuratorem eorundem dictum prioratum de Selebourne, cum suis possessionibus, juribus et pertinentiis universis, propria sua auctoritate ingredi, ac corporalem et realem possessionem eorundem per se aut suos apprehendere ac in usus suos proprios imperpetuum possidere et tenere, dictaeque unionis, annexionis, appropriationis et incorporationis negotium, cum suis emergentibus, incidentibus et connexis quibuscunque, fine debito et canonico decidendum et terminandum, cæteraque omnia et singula in hac parte requisita seu necessaria, vocatis prius per vos in hac parte de jure vocandis, faciendum, exercendum et expediendum, vobis et vestrum cuilibet per se et in solidum, in quorum fidelitate et industria confidimus, conjunctim et divisim committimus vices nostras, ac specialem et plenam in Domino potestatem, cum cujuslibet cohercionis canonicæ exequendique quæ in hac parte decreveritis potestate. Et quid in præmissis feceritis, nos, hujusmodi negotio expedito, debite certificetis per litteras vestras patentes, totum et integrum processum unionis, annexionis, appropriationis et incorporationis hujusmodi in se continentes, seu sic certificet ille vestrum qui præsentem nostram commissionem fuerit executus per litteras suas patentes autentice sigillatas. In cujus rei testimonium præsentibus sigillum nostrum apponi fecimus. Datum in castro nostro de Farnham, dictæ nostræ dioceseos, secundo die mensis Septembris, anno Domini millesimo cccc^mo^ lxxx^mo^ quarto, et nostræ consecrationis anno xxxviii^o.^"

Post quarum quidem dictæ commissionis litterarum lecturam publice factam, dictus magister Jacobus Prestone quasdam procuratorii litteras venerabilium virorum magistri Ricardi Mayewe, Præsidentis, ut asseruit, Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. situati, et ejusdem Collegii Scolarium sigillo rotundo communi, videlicet eorundem Præsidentis et Scolarium, in cera rubea impresso sigillatas, realiter exhibuit, cujus quidem procuratorii tenor inferius scribitur, et pro eisdem dominis suis præsidente et scolaribus fecit se partem, ac nobis cum instantia debita humiliter supplicavit quatinus onus commissionis hujusmodi in nos assumere, et juxta traditam nobis in eisdem formam procedere, dignaremur.

No one appeared to object to the commission.

Ad cujus quidem magistri Jacobi Prestone procuratoris memorati petitionem et instantiam, proclamatione interim publice coram nobis facta si quis contra nos aut dictam commissionem hujusmodi objicere voluerit, nullo ibidem contradicere seu objectere (sic) hujusmodi comparente, onus commissionis hujusmodi ob reverentiam supradicti reverendi patris committentis in nos assumentes, vocatis de jure vocandis, pro jurisdictione ejusdem reverendi patris et nostra in hac parte pronunciavimus et declaravimus, et ad commissionis hujusmodi executionem in negotio antedicto ad instantem petitionem ipsius magistri Jacobi Preston procuratoris antedicti procedendum fore decrevimus. Necnon præfatum magistrum Thomam Somercotes, notarium publicum antenominatum, in præsenti publico nostri processus instrumento se subscribentem, in actorum nostrorum scribam nominavimus et deputavimus tunc ibidem.

Thomas Somercotes appointed to report the process.

Consequenter tunc ibidem comparuit magister Michael Cleve,[1] sacrorum canonum professor, procurator venerabilium virorum Prioris et Conventus ecclesiæ Cathedralis Wintoniensis, et exhibuit procuratorium suum pro dictos Priore et Conventu sive capitulo dicta ecclesiæ cathedralis Wintoniensis sigillo eorum communi sigillatum, et fecit se partem pro eisdem. Deinde comparuit etiam coram nobis memorato commissario in prædicta ecclesia parochiali de Farnham dicto sexto die

Michael Cleve, proxy for the church of Winchester.

William Cowper, proxy for the Bishop of Winchester.

mensis prædictæ Septembris adhuc judicialiter sedente circumspectus vir[1] Willelmus Cowper, dicti reverendi in Christo patris Willelmi Wintoniensis episcopi, supradicti Prioratus de Selebourne, ordinis Sancti Augustini, ut asseruit patroni, procurator, ac procuratorium suum sub sigillo ejusdem reverendi patris sigillatum etiam realiter exhibuit, et pro eodem reverendo in Christo patre Willelmo Wintoniensi episcopo dicti prioratus de Selebourne patrono fecit se partem. In quorum magistri Michaelis Cleve, dictorum Prioris et Conventus sive capituli ecclesiæ cathedralis Wintoniensis, et Willelmi Cowper,[2] dicti reverendi patris domini Willelmi Wintoniensis episcopi patroni supradicti, procuratorum, nominibus quibus supra coram nobis comparentium, præsentia, idem magister Jacobus Prestone, procurator dictorum Præsidentis et Scholarium Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. prædicta, quemdam libellum sive articulum in causa sive negotio unionis, annexionis, appropriationis et incorporationis prædicti Prioratus de Selebourne, nomine prædictorum Præsidentis et Scholarium Collegii antedicti exhibuit, et admitti petiit eundem cum effectu, cujus quidem libelli sive articuli sequitur tenor:—

Libel exhibited by James Preston, proxy for the College.

"In Dei nomine, Amen. Coram vobis venerabili in Christo patre Ricardo, Priore ecclesiæ conventualis de Novo Loco, Wintoniensis dioceseos, ad infrascripta commissario una cum aliis, cum clausula conjunctim et divisim, sufficienter et legittime deputato, Pars venerabilium virorum magistri Ricardi Mayewe, Præsidentis Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon., et ejusdem Collegii Scholarium, dicit, allegat, et in his scriptis in jure proponit articulatim prout sequitur.

In primis, quod collegium beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. prædicta situatum de uno præsidente et octoginta quatuor scholaribus, præter sexdecim choristas et tresdecim servientes dicti collegii, inibi Altissimo jugiter famulantibus et in scientiis plerisque liberalibus, præsertim in sacrosancta theologia, studentibus, nedum ad ipsorum præsidentis et scholarium in dicto Collegio pro præsenti et imposterum, annuente Domino, incorporandorum in eodem relevamen, verum etiam ad omnium et singulorum tam sæcularium quam religiosorum cujuscumque ordinis undequaque illuc confluere pro salubri doctrina volentium utilitatem multiplicem et incrementa virtutum fideique catholicæ stabilimentum, ita videlicet quod omnes et singuli absque personarum seu nationum delectu illuc accedere volentes lecturas publicas et doctrinas tam in grammatica, in loco ad Collegium contiguo, ac in philosophiis morali et naturali, quam in sacra theologia, in eodem Collegio perpetuis futuribus temporibus opportunis continuandis libere et gratis audire valeant et possint, ad laudem gloriam et honorem Domini nostri Jesu Christi et ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ exaltationem necnon ad honorem intemeratæ Virginis Mariæ matris Ejusdem, Sanctæ Mariæ Magdalenæ, Sancti Johannis Baptistæ, et aliorum sanctorum, nuper pie et salubriter extitit fundatum et stabilitum.

[1] "honestus vir;" second Process.

[2] In the second Process Cowper's place is taken after the first day by Ralph Langley.

Item, quod in diocesi Wintoniensi fuit et est inter alia loca quidam Prioratus de Selebourne, ordinis Sancti Augustini, in quo reverendus in Christo pater et dominus dominus Willelmus Dei gratia Wintoniensis episcopus plenum jus obtinet patronatus, et sic fuit et est verum publice dictus, tentus, habitus, et reputatus palam, publice, et notorie.

Item, quod idem Prioratus de Selebourne ad tantæ ruinæ detrimentum devenit quod in eodem solitus numerus canonicorum regularium minime observatur, immo in tantum diminuitur quod Prior duntaxat ejusdem loci absque aliquo canonico obedientiario ibidem incorporato modernis temporibus residere in eodem dinoscitur. Et sic sacra religio et regulares observantiæ ibidem in ea parte non observantur, unde scandalum non modicum generatur. Fructus quoque, redditus et proventus ejusdem laicorum usibus non modicum multipliciter applicantur.

Item, quod dictus reverendus pater Willelmus Wintoniensis episcopus, dicto Prioratui et personis ejusdem pie compatiens, solicitudines pastorales, labores, et diligentias quamplurimas, tam per se quam per suos, pro reformatione præmissorum impendebat; et aliquando illius loci prioribus propter malam et inutilem administrationem et dispensationem bonorum prædicti Prioratus, suis demeritis exigentibus, amotis, alios priores in quorum circumspectione et diligentia confidebat præfecit, quos tamen male se habuisse et inutiliter administrare et administrasse usque ad præsentia tempora post debitam investigationem et examinationem factam invenit. Ita quod dictus reverendus pater statum ejusdem Prioratus repararc vel restaurare cum dictis suis solicitudinibus et laboribus gravissimis per aliquem religiosum nequivit, et considerata temporis malitia, et ex præteritis timendo et conjecturando futura, de aliqua bona et sancta religione ejusdem ordinis vel alterius, et religionis sanctis observantiis juxta piam intentionem primævi fundatoris ibidem habendis desperatur.

Item, quod fructus, redditus et proventus dicto Collegio assignati adeo tenues sunt et exiles quod ad exhibitionem dicti Præsidentis et Scholarium, Choristarum, ac eorum serventium, et aliorum onerum eidem Collegio incumbentium, minime sufficiunt his diebus.

Item, quod præmissa omnia et singula fuerunt et sunt vera, publica, notoria, manifesta et famosa, et super eisdem a diu laborarunt et laborant publica vox et fama.

Unde, facta fide in ea parte requisita, petit pars eorundem Præsidentis et Scholarium dictum Prioratum de Selebourne cum ecclesiis parochialibus de Selebourne et Basynge, una cum aliis ecclesiis et locis eidem Prioratui de Selebourne ab antiquo spectantibus et pertinentibus, cum suis possessionibus, rebus, juribus, et pertinentiis universis, Præsidenti et Scholaribus dicti Collegii et eorum successoribus ac eidem Collegio uniendum et appropriandum fore decerni et cum effectu uniri; ita quod Priore ejusdem Prioratus moderno cedente, decedente, aut dicto Prioratu qualitercunque vacante, liceat ex tunc Præsidenti et Scholaribus supradicti Collegii et eorum successoribus ipsum Prioratum de Selebourne cum dictis ecclesiis omnibus et singulis, locis, rebus, possessionibus, juribus, et pertinentiis universis, propria sua auctoritate ingredi, ac corporalem et realem possessionem eorundem per se et suos apprehendere ac in usus eorum perpetuo possidere et tenere, ulteriusque fieri, statui et decerni in præmissis et ea concernentibus quibuscunque quod juris fuerit et sacris in hac parte convenit institutis. Præmissa proponit et fieri petit pars dictorum Præsidentis et Scholarium conjunctim et divisim, non arctans se ad omnia et singula præmissa probandum, nec ad onus superfluæ probationis de quo protestatur, juris beneficio in omnibus semper salvo."

Quem quidem libellum sive articulum de expresso consensu omnium et singulorum procuratorum partium supradictarum Nos Commissarius antedictus admisimus, et ad omnia et singula in eodem libello sive articulo contenta probandum eidem magistro Jacobo Prestone, procuratori Præsidentis et Scholarium supradictorum, assignavimus terminum, videlicet decimum diem dictæ mensis Septembris. Et tunc statim et incontinenti in partem illius termini sic assignati magister Jacobus Prestone, procurator prædictus, produxit in testes magistrum Willelmum Gyfford, in sacra theologia professorem, Ricardum Bernys, in artibus magistrum, Johannem Chapman et Willelmum Rabbys, litteratos, quos nos Commissarius antedictus de consensu omnium procuratorum prædictorum admisimus, et tactis per eosdem et eorum quemlibet sacrosanctis Dei evangeliis ad ea jurari fecimus, et mandavimus de dicendo omnem et omnimodam veritatem quam noverint in ea parte superinterroganda ab eisdem. Qui quidem testes de mandato nostro sic jurarunt et eorum quilibet sic juravit, quos quidem testes nos Commissarius prædictus eodem die, tunc assistente nobis scriba supradicto, secrete et singillatim examinavimus. Quorum quidem procuratoriorum omnium et singulorum procuratorum prædictorum tenores sequuntur, et sunt tales.

Evidence of William Gifford, D.D.

Magister Willelmus Gyfford, sacræ theologiæ professor, ætatis lvj annorum et ultra, liberæ conditionis, testis productus, admissus, juratus et diligenter examinatus de et super libello sive articulo per supradictum magistrum Jacobum Prestone procuratorem prædictum, ut præfertur, proposito ; et primo super notitia personarum et locorum in dicto libello sive articulo expressorum, ad quæ dicit et respondet iste juratus quod bene novit dictum Collegium beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. situatum, fundatum et stabilitum, de uno Præsidente et certo numero personarum de quo supra in libello fit mentio, inibi Altissimo jugiter famulantium et in scientiis plerisque liberalibus, præsertim in sacra theologia, non solum ad ipsorum Præsidentis et Scholarium in eodem Collegio pro præsenti et imposterum annuente Domino incorporandorum in eodem incrementum, verum etiam ad omnium et singulorum tam secularium quam religiosorum cujuscunque ordinis undequaque illuc accedere pro salubri doctrina volentium utilitatem multiplicem et incrementa virtutum fideique Catholicæ stabilimentum. Ita videlicet quod omnes et singuli absque personarum seu nationum delectu illuc accedere volentes lecturas publicas et doctrinas tam in grammatica in loco ad idem Collegium contiguo ac philosophiis morali et naturali quam in sacra theologia in eodem Collegio perpetuis futuris temporibus opportunis continuandas libere et gratis audire valeant et possint, ad laudem gloriam et honorem domini nostri Jesu Christi,[1] necnon ad honorem intemeratæ Virginis Mariæ, Baptistæ, et aliorum sanctorum, prout in dicto libello est expressum. Et ulterius interrogatus, dicit et respondet quod in diocesi Wintoniensi est quidam prioratus de Selebourne, ordinis Sancti Augustini, in quo reverendus in Christo pater Willelmus Wintoniensis episcopus plenum jus obtinet patronatus. Ac insuper interrogatus, dicit et respondet quod idem prioratus de Selebourne ad tantæ ruinæ detrimentum devenit quod in eodem solitus numerus canonicorum regularium minime observatur, immo in tantum diminuitur quod prior duntaxat ejusdem loci absque aliquo canonico obedientiario ibidem incorporato modernis temporibus residere in eodem dinoscitur, et sic sacra religio et regulares observantiæ ibidem in ea parte non observantur, unde scandalum non modicum in ea parte generatur, et quod fructus, redditus et proventus ejusdem prioratus non modicum laicorum usibus diversimode applicantur. Et dicit etiam idem interrogatus quod licet dictus reverendus pater Willelmus episcopus Wintoniensis antedictus[2] solicitudines pastorales et summas diligentias tam per se quam per suos commissarios pro reformatione præmissorum impenderit, et aliquando illius loci prioribus propter malam et inutilem

[1] "et ecclesiæ suæ sanctæ exaltationem," added in the second Process.

[2] 'dicto prioratui et personis ejusdem pie compatiens," added in the second Process.

administrationem et dispensationem bonorum dicti prioratus amotis alios priores in quorum circumspectione et diligentia pro tempore confidebat præfecit, quos tamen demum se male et inutiliter habuisse et administrasse usque ad præsens tempus post debitam investigationem factam invenit, ita quod idem reverendus pater statum ejusdem prioratus reparare vel restaurare cum dictis suis solicitudinibus et diligentia nequivit, ac quod, considerata temporis malitia et ex præteritis timendo et conjecturando futura, de aliqua debita et sancta religione ejusdem ordinis vel alterius et religionis sanctis observantiis juxta piam intentionem primævi fundatoris ibidem habendis desperatur. Insuper dictus interrogatus dicit et respondet quod fructus redditus et proventus dicto Collegio sanctæ Mariæ Magdalenæ pertinentes adeo tenues sunt et exiles quod ad exhibitionem dicti Præsidentis et personarum prædictorum et aliorum onerum eidem incumbentium minime sufficiunt his diebus.

Evidence of William Rabbys.

Willelmus Rabbys, ætatis xl annorum et ultra, liberæ conditionis ut asseruit, testis productus, admissus, juratus, et diligenter examinatus de et super omnibus et singulis super quibus dictus magister Willelmus Gyfford superius extitit examinatus; et primo super notitia personarum et locorum in dicto libello sive articulo specificatorum; ad quæ dicit iste juratus et respondet quod dictum Collegium beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ bene novit; et in cæteris concordat iste juratus et interrogatus cum prædicto magistro Willelmo Gyfford superius examinato; et super addidit etiam quod omnia et singula in dicto libello sive articulo specificata et intenta fuerunt et sunt vera, publica, notoria, manifesta et famosa.

Evidence of Richard Bernys, M.A.

Magister Ricardus Bernys,[1] in artibus magister, liberæ conditionis, ætatis lx annorum et ultra, testis productus, admissus, juratus, et diligenter examinatus de et super omnibus et singulis super quibus prædictus magister Willelmus Gyfford superius examinatus extitit; et primo super notitia personarum et locorum in dicto libello sive articulo specificatorum; ad quæ dicit et respondet iste juratus quod dictum Collegium beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ bene novit, ac quod in cæteris concernentibus conditionem et statum ipsius Collegii super quibus dictus magister Willelmus Gyfford deposuit, et quod fructus, redditus et proventus dicto Collegio pertinentes ad supportationem onerum eidem incumbentium non sufficiunt, concordat cum eodem magistro Willelmo; in aliis vero concernentibus statum et conditionem dicti Prioratus de Selebourne, dicit quod audivit a quampluribus personis fidedignis quibus fidem adhibuit quod idem Prioratus de Selebourne ad tantæ ruinæ detrimentum devenit quod [—etc., almost verbally as above, in Gyfford's evidence, ending with the words "laicorum usibus non modicum multipliciter applicantur"].

Evidence of John Chapman.

Johannes Chapman,[2] ætatis xxxiiij annorum, et liberæ conditionis ut asseruit, testis productus [etc., as above in Bernys' evidence] Collegium beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ bene novit, et quod in cæteris statum et conditionem ipsius Collegii concernentibus super quibus

[1] This examination is omitted in the second Process.

[2] "capellanus," added in the other Process.

dictus magister Willelmus Gyfford fuit examinatus concordat cum eodem magistro Willelmo, excepto quod nescit deponere an fructus redditus et proventus dicto Collegio pertinentes sufficiunt ad exhibitionem onerum eidem Collegio pro tempore incumbentium. Et ulterius interrogatus dicit et respondet quod novit dictum prioratum de Selebourne fuisse et esse de patronatu reverendi in Christo patris Willelmi Wintoniensis episcopi antedicti, et quod idem prioratus ad tantæ ruinæ detrimentum devenit quod [etc., as above].

Evidence of Prior Ashford.

Thomas Asshford, Prior[1] dicti Prioratus de Selebourne, ætatis lxxii annorum, liberæ conditionis, testis productus, admissus, juratus, et diligenter examinatus de et super libello sive articulo per dictum magistrum Jacobum Prestone, procuratorem prædictum, ut præfertur, proposito; et primo super notitia personarum et locorum in dicto libello sive articulo descriptorum; ad quæ dicit et respondet iste juratus quod bene scit et novit dictum Prioratum de Selebourne fuisse et esse de patronatu dicti reverendi in Christo patris et domini domini Willelmi Wintoniensis episcopi; in cæteris vero omnibus et singulis in dicto libello sive articulo specificatis concernentibus statum et conditionem ejusdem prioratus de Selebourne concordat iste juratus cum Willelmo Rabbys antedicto.[2]

Tenor vero dictarum litterarum præfati reverendi patris Wintoniensis episcopi coram nobis in subsidium probationum ut præfertur exhibitarum sequitur in his verbis :—

Certificate by the Bishop of Winchester of the hopeless condition of the Priory.

"Willelmus permissione divina Wintoniensis episcopus universis et singulis litteras nostras visuris et inspecturis, salutem, gratiam et benedictionem. Noverit universitas vestra quod licet nos prioratui de Selebourne ordinis Sancti Augustini nostrorum patronatus et dioc. pie compatiens, solicitudines pastorales labores et diligentias quamplurimas per nos et commissarios nostros pro reformatione status dicti prioratus impenderimus, justitia id poscente, nihilominus tamen idem prioratus de Selebourne ad tantæ ruinæ detrimentum [etc., in substance as in the fourth article of Preston's libel, ending —] Quamobrem,

[1] "Dominus Thomas Asshford, nuper Prior," in the second Process.

[2] In the subsequent Process the evidence of Prior Ashford is thus recorded: "Dicit et respondet iste juratus et dicit secundum tertium et quartum articulos in eodem libello concernentes statum dicti prioratus de Selebourne fuisse et esse veros. Super aliis vero articulis in dicto libello contentis idem interrogatus dicit quod deponere nescit." In this Process Bernys' examination is not repeated, but two other witnesses are produced. "Magister Johannes Nele, artium magister, ætatis LVII annorum ut asseruit liberæque conditionis, testis [etc.] . . . . . primum articulum in dicto libello contentum secundum informationem fidedignorum dicit esse verum. Ac etiam idem interrogatus dicit secundum tertium et quartum articulo usque ad istam clausulam in dicto quarto articulo impositam Ita quod dictus reverendus pater etc. continere veritatem. Ad quam clausulam idem interrogatus dicit quod dictus reverendus pater statum ejusdem prioratus reparare vel restaurare cum dictis suis sollicitudinibus et laboribus gravissimis per aliquem religiosum dictorum præfati prioratus priorum nequivit. Et ulterius dicit quod considerata temporis malitia [etc.] Item dictus juratus ad quintum articulum respondet et dicit ipsum esse verum secundum quod a fidedignis dici audivit. Ad sextum articulum dicit quod præmissa modo illo prout per eum superius deposita fuerunt et sunt vera publica et famosa.

"Robertus Baron, LVI annorum liberæque conditionis ut asseruit, testis [etc.] . . . . super notitia personarum et locorum in dicto libello contentorum concordat cum dicto magistro Willelmo Gyfford de sua certa scientia, excepto tertio articulo in dicto libello specificato, quem quidem articulum dicit esse verum prout audivit ab aliis dici fidedignis. Et superaddidit quod præmissa ut per eum dicta et deposita vera, publica, notoria, manifesta sunt, et famosa, et super eisdem a diu laborarunt et laborant publica vox et fama."

præmissis ac moderni et futuri temporis malitia consideratis, de reparatione, reformatione et restauratione dicti prioratus in futurum de aliqua bona et sancta religione ac observantia ejusdem ordinis vel alterius ibidem effectualiter perimplenda penitus desperatur. In cujus rei testimonium præsentibus sigillum nostrum est appensum. Datum in castro nostro de Farnham dictæ nostræ dioc., primo die mensis Septembris, anno Domini millesimo quadringentesimo octogesimo quarto, et nostræ consecrationis anno tricesimo octavo."

The aforesaid evidence duly considered.

Consequenter eodem decimo die dictæ mensis Septembris sæpe memoratus magister Jacobus Prestone coram nobis Commissario in dicta ecclesia parochiali adhuc judicialiter sedente, in præsentia dictorum procuratorum quibus supra nominibus, libellum sive articulum supradictum per eum alias propositum in hac parte, singulis procuratoribus prædictis, ut præfertur, tunc et ibidem comparentibus, repetiit in vim positionum et articulorum, et petiit eos compelli respondere eisdem. Ad cujus petitionem Nos Commissarius prædictus cum eisdem procuratoribus, et præsertim cum dicto magistro Michaelo Cleve, procuratore dictorum Prioris et Conventus sive capituli ecclesiæ cathedralis Winton. dioc. de et super omnibus et singulis jam dicto libello sive articulo contentis et specificatis tractatum habuimus diligentem, et cum eisdem de unione, annexione, appropriatione et incorporatione dicti prioratus de Selebourne supradicto Collegio communicavimus, ac eosdem procuratores super omnibus et singulis in eodem libello sive articulo comprehensis interrogavimus. Qui quidem procuratores sic de, in, et super præmissis interrogati fatebantur et recognoverunt ea omnia et singula fuisse et esse vera. Deinde vero sæpedictus magister Michael Cleve, dictorum venerabilium virorum Prioris et Conventus ecclesiæ cathedralis Winton. procurator et procuratorio nomine eorundem, voluit et consentiit quod iste tractatus sic cum eo in ea parte habitus omnino habeatur et cedat in loco cujuscunque tractatus fiendi vel habendi in hac parte cum dictis Priore et Conventu. Et subsequenter Nos Commissarius prædictus prænominatis procuratoribus de eorum expressis consensu et assensu diem Sabbati tunc proxime subsequentem ad audiendum sententiam diffinitivam in ea parte et finale decretum nostrum in et super præmissis in eadem ecclesia parochiali de Farnham prædicta ferri assignavimus. Dicto vero die Sabbati, undecimo die videlicet dictæ mensis Septembris, adveniente, nos Ricardus, Prior supradictus ecclesiæ conventualis de Novo Loco, Commissarius antedictus, in eadem ecclesia parochiali judicialiter sedentes, in præsentia dictorum procuratorum partium superius descriptarum et ad eorum petitionem, sententiam diffinitivam sive finale decretum nostrum in hac parte tulimus, legimus, et promulgavimus in scriptis, ut sequitur :—

Decree of annexation of the Priory to the College, pronounced 11 Sept.

Petition from Magdalen College to Pope Innocent VIII for confirmation of the appropriation of the Priory.

[1485.] Supplicant Sanctitati vestræ vestri humiles et devoti oratores Ricardus Mayewe, Præsidens Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxon. fundati, et ejusdem Collegii Scolares, quatenus cum venerabilis vir Ricardus, Prior ecclesiæ conventualis de Novo Loco, Wintoniensis dioceseos, reverendi in Christo patris Willelmi Wintoniensis episcopi commissarius ad id specialiter deputatus, prioratum de Selebourne, dictæ dioc., ordinis Sancti Augustini, cujus bona in non modica quantitate in laicorum usus indebite consumuntur, et in quo solus Prior, absque alio canonico regulari obedientiario et incorporato ibidem, regularibus observantiis prætermissis, tempore unionis morari dinoscitur, licet ex illius fundatione quamplures canonici regulares cum Priore ibidem residere ac in divinis obsequiis solempniter ibidem celebrandis et regularibus observantiis communicare deberent, cum suis rebus, possessionibus, juribus et pertinentiis suis universis eisdem Præsidenti et Scolaribus, ac eorum successoribus ipsorumque Collegio supradicto, de dicti venerabilis patris domini Willelmi Winton. episcopi, ipsius prioratus patroni, necnon Prioris et Conventus seu Capituli ecclesiæ cathedralis Winton., ac Prioris prædicti prioratus de Selebourne, et aliorum in hac parte interesse habentium, voluntate et consensu, univerit, annexaverit, et appropriaverit, ita quod, dicto prioratu qualitercunque vacante, liceat extunc præfatis Præsidenti et Scolaribus ac eorum

successoribus corporalem et realem possessionem ejusdem prioratus ac rerum, possessionum, et pertinentium suorum universorum, libere auctoritate propria ingredi, apprehendere, et pro perpetuo retinere, ac ipsorum prioratus et pertinentium suorum fructus redditus et proventus in suos usus convertere; cujus quidem prioratus certo modo vacantis possessionem dicti vestri Oratores adepti sunt, et in præsenti habent et retinent: Dignetur eadem Sanctitas vestra unionem, annexationem et appropriationem prædictas et illas concernentia omnia et singula, necnon inde secuta, auctoritate apostolica vestro motu proprio et ex certa scientia gratiose confirmare, ratificare et approbare, ac plenum firmitatis robur obtinuisse et obtinere decernere; Necnon tam Collegii quam prioratus prædictorum valores annuos, ac unionis dicti prioratus acta et instrumenta, et alia exinde secuta, præsentibus pro expressis habere, supplereque omnes et singulos defectus tam juris quam facti, si qui forsan intervenerint in eisdem; Ac ordinem ipsum in dicto prioratu de Selebourne et ejus dependentiam penitus supprimere et extinguere: Necnon irritum et inane decernere si cœtus super his a quoquam quavis auctoritate scienter vel ignoranter contigerit attemptari: Non obstantibus dicti ordinis statutis et consuetudinibus, juramento, confirmatione apostolica, vel quavis firmitate alia roboratis [quodque dictus prioratus per religiosos suæ vel alterius religionis forsan reformari possit],[1] ac voluntate ultima fundatorum seu testatorum et benefactorum quorumcunque dicti prioratus de Selebourne prædicta, constitutionibus apostolicis, necnon Othonis et Octoboni quondam in regno Angliæ apostolicæ sedis legatorum, cæterisque contrariis quibuscunque.—[51.]

Draft on paper.

[1485] 27 Jan. Draft of the bull first supplicated for, confirming the annexation of Selborne, Brackley, Aynho, Wanborough and Romney, as submitted for approval (as it seems) to Pope Innocent VIII, in which reference is made to the previous proceedings in England; with various corrections. A clause giving the reason for the issue of the bull in these words, "Cum autem de viribus unionum, annexionum, et incorporationum prædictarum a nonnullis hesitetur," is struck out, and noted "dematur hec clausula quia non placet." The paper is subscribed at foot (in what may be the Pope's own hand), "Fiat ut petitur de novo," and again, with regard to the proposed insertion of some additional clauses including one "ex certa scientia," "Fiat ut supra." "Datum Rome apud Stmpetrum sexto kal. Febr. anno primo." Endorsed "L° v° fol. c[l]xxxi°," being the reference to the official Register. See the description of this document in the following instructions to the agent of the College in this year.—[Appropriations, 21.]

Draft of Instructions to the Advocate, Jac. de Montelato, of Pisa, employed at Rome to procure the Bull of Annexation, with estimate of expenses.

[On paper roll; Appropr. 19. A first draft is on a roll numbered 20; that is endorsed, "Conceptus M. T. Hope super supplicationibus sollicitatori missis pro bullis earundem in curia Romana expediendis."]

Domine Jacobe, Mente revolvite, exhortor, quod in prioribus annis et diebus negotia etiam majora quæ in Romana curia expedienda mihi occurrebant vobis commendabam. Ac etiam apud majores regni qui commissiones ad curiam direxerunt vos commendatum habui, uti experientia probastis. In quibus probata ac provida vestra diligentia et solicitudo me excitant ut in futurum in consultis et occurrentibus apud vos solicitandis fiduciam ponam.

Notate igitur, et diligenter ac iterum perlegite, quæ subscribuntur.

Superioribus annis reverendus in Christo pater et dominus dominus Willelmus episcopus Wintoniensis in universitate Oxon. Collegium quoddam in honore beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ, etc., de lxxx Scholaribus, sedecim pueris et xiij servientibus fundavit, ut in informatione ac supplicationibus conceptis et cum præsentibus ad vos directis concipere poteritis. Studet igitur et curam gerit idem reverendus pater, ut prædicti scholares et alia supposita (sic) ipsius Collegii in futurum quietius studere, necnon Deo devotius servire et in divinum insistere, valeant, providere de fructibus et proventibus, etc., ex quibus vivere possint, sicuti et in certis provisione[m] fecit et in subjectis amplius et uberius facere conatur.

Et quia idem reverendus pater cognoscens me antiquum curialem arbitratus est in subscriptis me consulere posse ut in curia[1] sufficienter ipsa sua negotia provide ad suam voluntatem et utilitatem Collegii solicitentur et expediantur; propterea me vocavit, et ea ad solicitandum in curia mihi commisit. Recurro igitur ad vos in præsenti ex fiducia magna, et exhortor ut diligentiam in commissis subscriptis adhibere velitis.

Ecce mitto ad vos in præsentibus tenores quatuor supplicationum in quibus narrantur quinque locorum uniones seu appropriationes factæ de consensu eorum quorum intererat per diversos ordinarios in partibus, quas supplicationes, si vobis videtur quod secundum stilum curiæ conceptæ sint, bene est; sin autem, reformate. Ita tamen quod nil substantiæ omittatur.

Et licet nonnulla sint descripta in dictis supplicationibus quæ non sunt de stilo curiæ, et aliqua omissa quæ sunt de stilo curiæ, in his omnibus omissis et superfluis ac in consuetis opus erit ut provide per alias clausulas succurratur.

Habeo regulam Cancellariæ in memoria quæ canit (sic) quod in unionibus fiendis ac confirmandis fructus beneficiorum seu locorum uniendorum et quibus uniuntur exprimi debeant, quibus expressis compositio cameræ notior et facilior erit. Sed quia dominus meus reverendus pater episcopus petit, habeantur pro expressis ex eo capite quod nondum est plene provisum prædicto Collegio et tot personis de redditibus quod commode vivere possint, ac etiam loca unita prædicta adeo collapsa sunt et egent reparationibus, ac a locis prædictis alienati sunt fructus ac diversis acclamationibus turbati, quod grave est sibi sana conscientia verum valorem fructus eorundem æstimare. Sed describam, et dominationem suam in his specialiter exhortatus sum.

Insuper et mihi conscius sum quod frequentur uniones et acta eorum in partibus per ordinarios factæ et per Papam confirmatæ in literis apostolicis et bullis confirmationum inseri solebant; et quia dominus meus reverendus asserit acta illarum prolixa, petit tenores haberi pro expressis.

Reliquum est quod vobis intimare necesse visum est. Nam quidam Laurentius, Almanus et Romipeta, qui pluries in anno solitus est curiam visitare, cujus et notitiam arbitror vos habere, curam et solicitudinem unionum et negotiorum præmissorum superioribus diebus in Romana curia suscepit, et in his quid perfecit scietis infra, qui accessit ad dominum Antonium de Mucciarellis scriptorem bullarum, et eum fecit solicitatorem negotiorum prædictorum, et ei ostendit et tradidit informationem in partibus traditam.

Antonius visa informatione formavit supplicationem seu formari fecit, et omnes supradictas uniones quinque locorum comprehendit in una supplicatione, et illam obtinuit cum certis clausulis signari, datari, et registrari, ut patet in libro quinto Registri, fol. clxxxi. Cujus copiam vobis cum præsentibus mitto. Signatura vero fuit per hæc verba, "Fiat ut petitur de novo." Fuit et concepta minuta secundum tenorem signaturæ cujus copiam Laurentius apportavit, et in illa cavetur quomodo dominus noster summus Pontifex non confirmavit sed unit de novo loca prædicta Collegio. Habet sed sanctissimus dominus noster Papa tenores unionum et valorem fructus beneficiorum, etc., pro expressis. Sed dominus Antonius dixit Laurentio quod opus foret solvere et componere cum camera apostolica de fructibus beneficiorum unitorum tempore bullæ expeditæ semel, et in futurum imperpetuum de quindecim annis in quindecim tantum sicut in prima solutione, et quod collector domini nostri et Papæ in Anglia deberet se informare de fructibus beneficiorum hujusmodi, et certificare cameram apostolicam; qui census talis in similibus fuit et est inauditus apud nos in Anglia.

Propterea dominus meus reverendus ad evitandum hujusmodi onus et censum, qui esset periculosus et onerosus dicto Collegio in futurum si fructus diminuerentur ipsorum locorum, præterea Præsidens et Scholares, petunt confirmationes "Ex certa scientia," ut in supplicatione; etsi sanctissimus dominus noster Papa post confirmationes ad petitionem partium factas velit apponere et addicere hanc clausulam, "Et nos ex superhabundanti gratia nostra pro firmiori subsistentia prædictorum unimus etc. dicto Collegio, etc. non ad petitionem alicujus"; et hoc si obtinere poteritis dominus meus et nos optamus.

Et ita reperimus pontifices summos in similibus bullis concessisse prædicto Collegio hanc clausulam. Si obtinere poteritis probate, etiam cum aliquali pecunia et mediocri summa.

Domine Jacobe, pro laboribus vestris habebitis in Banco, solutis bullis et compositionibus, viginti ducatos. Et si clausulas obtinere poteritis quas nos addicere (sic) petimus, habebitis bonam propinam a domino, etc. Et si aliquas propinas ad habendum favores in aliquo officio feceritis, reverendus dominus noster antedictus ipsas refundet cum usuris. Ideo fiat diligentia ut negotia expediantur.

Valores prioratus de Selborne etc. de claro, deductis omnibus, c ducati, et de Brakley c ducati, et de Aynehoo xl ducati, et de Warnburghe viij^{xx} x ducati, et de Romenay xxii ducati; in toto in ducatis ccclij ducati, [in moneta Angliæ lxxix*li.*[1]], "ut opinatum erat temporibus unionum prædictorum locorum."[2]

Compositio per æstimationem de dictis quinque locis unitis ascendit secundum medietatem totalis valoris eorundem ad summam clxxvi ducatorum [in pecunia Anglicana xxxix*li.* xij*s.*].

Expensæ per æstimationem cujuslibet bullæ in quatuor officiis cum taxis extendunt ad summam xxiiij ducatorum [in pecunia Anglicana, cviij*s.*] In toto in ducatis iiij^{xx} xvi [in pecunia Anglicana xxj*li.* xij*s.*].

Compositio cum aliis expensis bullarum prædictis et taxis, ut supra, in toto in ducatis, feodis Jacobi exceptis, cclxxij, [in pecunia Anglicana lxj*li.* vj*s.*[3]].

Item, deponantur in Banco c ducati ultra expensas bullarum et compositionum, in casu quod non sufficerent summæ depositæ. Fiat commissio per mercatorem de Banco illo ad socios suos in curia de c ducatis solvendis dicto Jacobo de Montelato de Pissia, si necesse fuerit pro expeditione negotii prædicti. Et facta acquietancia per dominum Jacobum prædictum de illa pecunia recepta in ea parte episcopus prædictus faciet mercatorem de dictis c ducatis refundendis securum.

Fiat obligatio inter episcopum, etc., et mercatorem et socios suos de Banco de totali summa deposita in Banco quod fideliter liberabit et solvet Jacobo prædicto eandem summam, feodo Banci excepto, in Romana curia sollicitori.

Memorandum de xij*li.* dimissis in Banco de Bardis solvendis Antonio de Mucciarellis quod dictæ xij libræ sint pars summæ prædictæ deliberandæ modo dicto Jacobo.

Domine Jacobo, ea quæ me movebant ut vos in notitiam reverendi in Christo patris et domini domini Willelmi episcopi Winton. præ cæteris in Romana curia procuratoribus et solicitatoribus, ejus in negotiis expediendis, præferrem et jure haberem, in principio hujus scripti annota[n]tur. Et quia superioribus diebus, postquam idem reverendus pater dominus meus Willelmus episcopus Wintoniensis consulere me dignabatur in præmissis suis negotiis et unionibus fiendis, operam dedi et literis meis absque mora vos certiores de præmissis ad vos in futurum mittendis feci, uti et vestris ad me literis directis responsum dedistis, apparet, sumus ergo nunc in opere. Deus concedat felicem expeditionem! Dominus igitur et reverendus pater conclusit ut mitterem ad vos informationes v unionum, quarum unam, videlicet de Selborne, Winton. dioc., ordinis Sancti Augustini, petit solicitari et expediri secundum tenorem informationis ac supplicationis cum præsentibus transmissæ ad vos. In qua informatione ac supplicatione reverendus pater et dominus non cupit [aliqua][3] in substantia minui, sed potius utilia addi. Fiat propterea solicitatio diligens ut expediatur illa per se in una bulla. Qua expedita et soluta, quid de aliis quatuor unionibus fiendis melius fuerit, studere et cogitare poteritis. Et quia diversæ sunt informationes, singulas percurrere et videre solerter curetis. Est enim una minuta concepta quæ comprehendit quatuor hospitalium seu locorum uniones præter supradictam de Selborne, quas in una bulla [vel diversis][2] includere, et per viam confirmationis, cum clausulis "Ex certa scientia" et cum suppletione defectuum, etiam quod fructus hospitalium, cantariarum, seu locorum, unitorum, ac Collegii cui uniuntur, non obstante regula Cancellariæ, habeantur pro expressis, ut plenius in minuta continetur, solicitare et expediri facere, [prout] facilius videbitur, date operam et expedite. Si vero aliqua difficultas oritur vel foret quod ad nutum dicti reverendi patris et secundum informationes missas res non possent expediri, rescribite de singulis.

personarum præsertim in eis literarum studiis insistentium, commodo et utilitate processisse dicuntur, ut firma perpetuo et illibata persistant, cum a nobis petitur, adjiciamus apostolici muniminis firmitatem, illaque interdum de novo concedamus: prout conspicimus id in Domino salubriter expedire. Sane pro parte dilectorum filiorum Ricardi Mayewe, moderni Præsidentis, et Scholarium Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ in universitate Oxoniensi, Lincolniensis dioceseos, fundati, nobis nuper exhibita petitio continebat, quod cum in Prioratu de Seleborne, ordinis Sancti Augustini, Wintoniensis dioceseos, in quo juxta illius fundationem plures canonici regulares residere ac divinis obsequiis vacare debebant, solus Prior, regularibus observantiis prætermissis, moraretur, et illius bona in non parva quantitate in laicorum usus indebite consumerentur, dilectus filius Ricardus Prior monasterii de Novoloco, dictæ dioceseos, habens ad hoc, ut asserebat, a venerabili fratre nostro Willelmo episcopo Wintoniensi specialem per illius literas facultatem, illius vigore, de Willelmi episcopi prædicti, ad cujus præsentationem dictus Prioratus pertinebat, ac dilectorum filiorum Prioris et Capituli ecclesiæ Wintoniensis, necnon tunc Prioris dicti Prioratus de Seleborne, ac aliorum quorum intererat, voluntate et consensu, Prioratum prædictum præfato Collegio cum omnibus locis, membris, juribus, rebus, possessionibus et pertinentiis suis ordinaria autoritate perpetuo univit, annexuit et appropriavit: dictique Præsidens et Scholares, cum unio, annexio et appropriatio hujusmodi effectum sortire essent, unionis, annexionis et appropriationis prædictarum vigore possessionem corporalem assecuti fuerunt, quam tenent et de præsenti, Prioratus, locorum, membrorum juriumque et pertinentiarum prædictorum, prout in quibusdam autenticis literis sive publicis instrumentis desuper confectis, dicitur plenius contineri. Quare pro parte Præsidentis et Scholarium prædictorum, asserentium fructus redditus et proventus dicti Prioratus de Seleborne cum suis membris centum et sexaginta florenos auri de camera, secundum communem extimationem, valorem annuum non excedere, nobis fuit humiliter supplicatum, ut unioni, annexioni et appropriationi prædictis, pro illarum subsistentia firmiori, robur apostolicæ confirmationis adjicere, ac pro potiori cautela Prioratum de Seleborne prædictum eidem Collegio de novo unire, annectere et incorporare, ac ordinem Sancti Augustini et quascunque dependentias in eo supprimere, aliasque in præmissis opportune providere, de benignitate apostolica dignaremur. Nos igitur, qui dudum inter alia voluimus quod petentes beneficia ecclesiastica aliis uniri tenerentur exprimere verum valorem secundum extimationem prædictam etiam beneficii cui aliud peteretur uniri, alioquin unio non valeret, et quod in unionibus commissio semper fieret ad partes, vocatis quorum interesset, et idem observaretur in confirmationibus unionum jam factarum, Collegii beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ hujusmodi fructuum, reddituum et proventuum veros annuos valores, ac verum et ultimum dicti Prioratus de Seleborne vacationis modum, qualitates et dependentias, si quæ sint, præsentibus pro expressis habentes, necnon Præsidentem et Scholares prædictos eorumque singulos a quibusvis excommunicationis, suspensionis et interdicti aliisque ecclesiasticis sententiis, censuris et pœnis, a jure vel ab homine quavis

Et nihilominus, pro potiori præmissorum cautela, Prioratum de Seleborne prædictum cum omnibus et singulis membris, locis, juribus, pertinentiis et aliis supradictis, eidem Collegio beatæ Mariæ Magdalenæ dicta apostolica autoritate de novo inperpetuum unimus, annectimus et incorporamus, ita quod liceat ex nunc eisdem Præsidenti et Scholaribus per se vel alium seu alios corporalem Prioratus de Seleborne, locorum, membrorum juriumque et pertinentiarum prædictorum possessionem autoritate propria continuare et de novo apprehendere, illorumque fructus, redditus et proventus in suos et dicti Collegii usus utilitatemque convertere et perpetuo retinere, diocesani loci et cujusvis alterius licentia super hoc minime requisita. Ac præterea, quod Prioratus de Seleborne prædictus, si opus sit, per dicti Sancti Augustini vel cujusvis alterius ordinis religiosos ad nutum Præsidentis et Scholarium prædictorum eligendos ac deputandos reformari possit, eadem apostolica autoritate statuimus: Non obstantibus voluntate nostra prædicta et aliis apostolicis, necnon bonæ memoriæ Octonis, Octoboni, olim in regno Angliæ sedis apostolicæ Legatorum, ac in provincialibus et sinodalibus conciliis editis, generalibus vel specialibus constitutionibus et ordinationibus, statutis quoque et consuetudinibus dicti ordinis juramento, confirmatione apostolica, vel quavis firmitate alia roboratis, cæterisque contrariis quibuscunque: Aut si aliqui super provisionibus sibi faciendis de Prioratibus hujusmodi vel aliis beneficiis ecclesiasticis in illis partibus speciales vel generales dictæ sedis vel Legatorum ejus literas impetrarint, etiam si per eas ad inhibitionem, reservationem et decretum vel alias quomodolibet sit processum, quas quidem literas et processus habitos per easdem, ac inde secuta quocunque, ad Prioratum hujusmodi volumus non extendi, sed nullum per hoc eis, quoad assecutionem Prioratuum seu beneficiorum aliorum, præjudicium generari; et quibuslibet aliis privilegiis, indulgentiis et literis apostolicis generalibus vel specialibus quorumcunque tenorum existant, per quæ, præsentibus non expressa vel totaliter non inserta, effectus earum impediri valeat quomodolibet vel differri, et de quibus quorumque totis tenoribus habenda sit in nostris literis mentio specialis. Proviso quod Prioratus de Seleborne prædictus debitis propterea non fraudetur obsequiis, et animarum cura, si qua illi immineat, nullatenus negligatur, sed illius congrue supportentur onera consueta. Nos enim ex nunc irritum decernimus et inane si secus super hiis a quoque quavis autoritate scienter vel ignoranter contigerit attemptari. Nulli ergo omnino hominum liceat hanc paginam nostræ

Letter to the President of Magdalen College from the Agent employed by the College at Rome.

1486, Aug. 16. Reverende in Christo pater et domine mi ac benefactor observan[dissime], Com[mendo me?]. xvij° Junii scripsi vobis cum insertione copiæ literarum quas vj° Maii scripseram, et significavi quod solveram domino Bartholomæo de Perusio ducatos sex pro residuo unius duplicatæ, et solveram pro legitimatione David Ap prout ordinaveratis in bancho, ubi postea inventa fuit commissio illa novem ducat[orum] quam ipsi bancharii dixerunt non habere. Item quod confirmationes omnium unionum Collegio Oxoniæ factarum erant obtentæ, ac scriptæ bullæ et taxatæ, et illæ Prioratus de Seleborne totaliter expeditæ quæ sunt in camera apostolica, quia petebant integram annatam et compositionem fructuum male perceptorum, cum Ordinarius non potuisset unire beneficium regulare sæculari, etsi Collegium non fecit fructus suos et illos male percepit, et similiter petebant de capella de Wamburghe. Nihilominus bono et secreto modo studebam, ne plus exponeremus quam misissetis, et quantocius omnia expedire curarem, quæ jam in tuto sunt. Idem nunc repeto. Recepi post hæc tres alias vestras literas, unas ij, alteras x Maii, et tertias xxj Junii, quibus respondebo. Ego P[aternitatem] vestram de negligentia, si illam incurreret, excusarem semper tanquam filius et fidelis servulus vester. Novitates et mutationes istius regni pacatas esse plurimum lætor. De molestia xlvi ducatorum, super quibus cum istis de Frescobaldis contenditis, non modicum doleo: sed mercatores, qui sciunt quod pecuniæ vigore commissionum solvendæ non dantur absque quitantiis, bene possunt certificari quod nisi ostendatur et appareat quitantia mea quod receperim xlvi ducatos, ego illos nunquam habui, et tenentur restituere deponenti, cum maxime apparuerit per sæpissimas meas literas quod commissio illa jam diu expiraverat, nec poterant expediri gratiæ in quibus tales ducatus export[ar]i debebant: qua de re etiam scribam, ut cupitis, mercatoribus supradictis et Michaeli de Ceparello ac Marco Stroctio, et quod fieri poterit cum istis de Gaddis procurabo, ne vestro bono jure fraudemini. Audiveramus ante præsentationem literarum vestrarum de obitu reverendissimi domini Cantuariensis, et successive intelleximus nominationem sive præsentationem per serenissimum Regem factam ad Cantuariensem ac Eliensem ecclesias quæ (ut accepi) cum dilatione expedientur ob penuriam nummorum.

Reposui in bancho de Gaddis die v Aprilis anni 1483 ducatos auri de camera triginta duos, quos acceperam pro expedienda quadam dispensatione matrimoniali Rogeri Bramiston, quæ non potuit expediri ob nimiam compositionem : et Hieronymus Frescobaldus scripserat ad eosdem de Gaddis ut illos repeterent, et ipsum certificarunt quod dictos xxxij ducatos a me receperant, de quibus ab ipsis Gaddis quitantiam habeo. Et sic scribent et attestabuntur quod mihi nullam pecuniæ summam aliam solverunt commissione Hieronymi Frescobaldi absque quitantiis triplicatis, ita quod dicti Frescobaldi, non ostensis quitantiis meis quod receperim xlvj ducatos pro expeditione dispensationis pro magistro H. Falke, debent cogi ad illos vobis restituendum, quos nunquam habui, nec petivi. Et sic scribam Consulibus nationis Florentinæ. Et vobis scripsi per meas literas xxv Julii 1483 quod reposueram in bancho de Gaddis dictos xxxij ducatos pro dispensatione Rogeri Bramiston constitutos. Certifico vos quod die xj præsentis mensis fuit conclusa pax inter Pontificem et Italiæ potentatus confœderatos, quam Altissimus optatam perpetuo servet nosque tueatur incolumes. Bene valete, et istis reveren[dis] dominis Archiepiscopis et Episcopis vestris me commendate. Quod Papa aliquid contra executores testamenti illius vestri domini quia non reparavit, etc., quæsierit, nihil audire potui nec intelligere ; et sum certus quod sunt fabulæ. Si quid explorare vel scrutari potero, vel intellexero, statim significabo, prout vestra erga me beneficia merito exigunt et requirunt. Romæ, xvj Augusti 1486.
